

Exeter
Cathedral

What's On

at Exeter Cathedral

October 2017
November 2017

www.exeter-cathedral.org.uk

Friday 6th October

Concert: Wildwood Kin

Part of the Lost Weekend Festival.
For more information please see lostweekend.co.uk

Sunday 8th October at 19.00

Holy Ground

Holy Ground is a creative and contemplative act of worship, at the heart of which is a celebration of the Holy Communion or Lord's Supper. The act of worship is followed by refreshments and a café-style gathering in the Nave.

This month's speaker is Canon Mark Oakley, Canon Chancellor at St Paul's Cathedral, London. Mark's role at St Paul's includes oversight of education, theology, the arts, mission and evangelism. His latest book of poetry is 'A Splash of Words' and Mark will be taking us into the realm of poetry as the native language of faith.

Thursday 12th October from 09.00

The Woolly Roadshow

(Cathedral Green)

An educational promotion of British Wool, British Sheep and the Rare Breeds Survival Trust.

Thursday 12th October at 19.00

The Great Big Cathedral Quiz

Put together a team of 6-8 and compete in the nave of the Cathedral. There'll be some prizes up for grabs on the night, plus bragging rights as the 2017 Great Big Cathedral Quiz Champions!

Tickets are just £10 per person and include a delicious hog roast courtesy of Kenniford Farm. There's even a cash bar provided by The Oddfellows!

Find out more online exeter-cathedral.org.uk/events or telephone 01392 285978

Friday 13th October, 07.30-18.15

Day of Prayer for the Life and Mission of Exeter Cathedral

All welcome.

Saturday 14th October at 13.00

Informal Concert: Vauxhall MVC

Entry to the concert is included in the Cathedral Admission charge.

Sunday 15th October at 16.00

Evensong in honour of our Founder and Benefactors

All welcome to this act of worship. Music will be led by the Cathedral Choir, the University of Exeter Chapel Choir and the Exeter Symphony Orchestra.

Monday 16th October at 19.00

Concert: Two Moors Festival

The City of Birmingham Symphony Orchestra gives its first performance in the South West as part of the Two Moors Festival. Mozart Marriage of Figaro Overture, Beethoven Piano Concerto No. 4 in G major (soloist: Pavel Kolesnikov) and Brahms Symphony No. 1. Michael Seal conducts.

Tickets from 01392 665885 and tickets.
thetwomoorsfestival.co.uk/

Wildwood Kin

 Sunday 22nd October at 11.30
Trafalgar Day Service
All welcome to this act of worship

 Monday 23rd until Friday 27th October
Half Term Family Activities
Try out some science experiments like making your own slime or design and make spectacular flying machines that will soar across the Cathedral's Nave. Maybe take the 'Knights' Challenge', on a quest for hidden treasure or join us at the crafts table for quick, fun, creative projects. Full details elsewhere in this document.

 Saturday 28th October at 14.30
Eucharist to celebrate Readers' Ministry
All welcome to this act of worship

 Sunday 29th October at 19.00
Devon Young Farmers' Harvest Thanksgiving
All welcome to this act of worship

 Monday 30th October until Tuesday 14th November during normal visitor hours
Exhibition: Devon Remembers
Handmade poppies to pay a moving tribute to the 11,500 men and women from Devon who lost their lives in the First World War. The exhibition will be open after the service on Remembrance Sunday. Cathedral admission charge applies at all other times.

 Friday 3rd November at 19.30
Concert: EMG Symphony Orchestra
Music by Bax, Parry, Elgar and Alfie Pugh to celebrate the orchestra's 50th anniversary. Leo Geyer and Tony Hindley conduct. Tickets from 01392 665700 and emgsymphonyorchestra.org

500th Anniversary of the Reformation

 Tuesday 31st October, 10.00-16.00 (Cathedral)
Popup exhibition: #Reformation500
(included in Cathedral admission charge)

 Tuesday 31st October at 13.15 (Pearson Education Centre)
Talk: The English Reformation in Exeter (Diane Walker)
Booking essential.
Tickets (free) from 01392 285983 and exeter-cathedral.org.uk/boxoffice

 Tuesday 31st October at 15.00 (Cathedral)
Guided Tour: The English Reformation at Exeter Cathedral
Booking essential.
Tickets (free) from 01392 285983 and exeter-cathedral.org.uk/boxoffice

 Tuesday 31st October at 17.30
The Lutheran Divine Service with music led by the University of Exeter Chapel Choir

 Tuesday 31st October at 19.30 (Chapter House)
Lecture: Why should we remember the Reformation?
Revd Professor Morwenna Ludlow (Head of Theology and Religion, University of Exeter) and Professor James Clark (Professor of History, University of Exeter)
Booking essential.

Tickets (free) from 01392 285983 and exeter-cathedral.org.uk/boxoffice

Half Term Activities for kids

Monday 23rd October in the Pearson Building 10.00-12.00 (6yrs +, booking essential, £7)

That's Science

This popular workshop is appearing again. Be a cool scientist and launch your flying machines around the Cathedral. Make copters and planes whizz across the nave. Can a plane fly with circular wings? What is the biggest paper plane we can fly? Let's find out!

Tuesday 24th October in the Cathedral 10.30 (4yrs+, booking essential, £7 per child, £7.50 per adult including Cathedral admission)

That's The Tour

Join us on this family friendly tour that shows you the best parts of the Cathedral with many stories to tell. Spot the very cheeky choirboy and the hungry croc. Someone will get the chance to dress as a bishop or a chorister. You will also be given trinkets to lay at Bishop Lacy's Tomb, to bring good luck and fortune to all on the tour.

Wednesday 25th October in the Pearson Building 10.00-12.00 (6yrs+, booking essential. £7)

That's History

Knights and wizards are a clever sort, become one and take the Medieval Challenge to find the ingredients to make 'ecto-slime'. Can you ward off dragons and demons with your homemade potion?

Friday 27th October in the Cathedral 11.00-14.00 (all ages, just drop in, crafts up to £2 each)

That's Crafting

Join us inside the Cathedral and visit the Craft Table. We have something for everyone to have a go at today. Some crafts are free; others are £1 or £2. Make a magic mirror or a bespoke badge to take home, try a bendy knight or a fluffy belfry bat. Children must be accompanied by an adult. Admission to the Cathedral is FREE for children under 18 as part of a family group.

Book now by calling 01392 285983 or book online exeter-cathedral.org.uk/boxoffice

Saturday 4th November at 19.30

Concert: Show of Hands

Show of Hands are undeniably one of the strongest current forces in acoustic music – England’s finest and most popular roots partnership and something of a “people’s band”. Joined by Miranda Sykes on double bass they are widely recognised for their resonating original songs, stunning musicianship and remarkable audience rapport. Tickets from 01392 285983 and exeter-cathedral.org.uk/boxoffice

Friday 10th November at 19.30

Concert: English Touring Opera

Soloists from English Touring Opera are joined by local choir Antiphon and the Old Street Band for J.S.Bach’s Mass in B Minor. Jonathan Peter Kenny conducts. Tickets from 01392 726363 and exeternorthcott.co.uk

Saturday 11th November at 10.55

Act of Remembrance for Armistice Day

All welcome to this act of worship

Saturday 11th November at 16.00

Choral Evensong sung by members of RSCM (Devon) Choirs

All welcome to this act of worship

Sunday 12th November at 11.30

Remembrance Sunday Service

All welcome to this act of worship

Sunday 12th November at 19.00

Holy Ground

Holy Ground is a creative and contemplative act of worship, at the heart of which is a celebration of the Holy Communion or Lord’s Supper. The act of worship is followed by refreshments and a café-style gathering in the Nave.

This month’s speaker is the Revd Dr Donna Lazenby. Donna is the Director of St Mellitus College South West in Plymouth, which opens its doors for training ordinands this September. She is also Tutor and Lecturer in Spirituality and Apologetics. Donna’s PhD research, which won The John Templeton Award for Theological Promise 2011, explored points of contact between the Christian mystical tradition and atheistic literature, and she remains fascinated by the relationship between the Church and contemporary culture. Her second book, Divine Sparks: Everyday Encounters with God’s Incoming Kingdom, is published this year with SPCK.

Tuesday 14th November

Concert: Exeter Cathedral School

More information from exetercs.org

Tuesday 7th November, 18.30-21.00

Wednesday 8th November, 10.00-16.00

Exeter Cathedral Winter Fair

The fair will take place inside the Nave of the Cathedral – and as over 2,000 visitors experienced last year – it’s quite a spectacular venue for a spot of shopping!

Tickets are free and can be booked from 01392 285983 and online exeter-cathedral.org.uk/boxoffice

Book in advance and receive a free drink on arrival.

The Winter Fair

Thursday 16th November
(until 17th December)

Exeter Cathedral Christmas Market
on Cathedral Green

Opening times

Monday to Wednesday 10.00-19.00

Thursday to Saturday 10.00-21.00

Sunday 11.00-17.00

On Thursday 16th November, the Christmas Market will open from 15.00

We're looking forward to an exciting mix of local and continental traders, showcasing the best of festive food, crafts and gifts. New for 2017 will be the west front bandstand.

November 2017

Saturday 18th November at 19.30

Concert: Exeter Festival Chorus

Durufle Requiem and Dvořak Mass in D. Exeter Festival Chorus is joined by the Erlöserkirche Chor (from Exeter's twin German city, Bad Homburg), Julian Rippon (baritone), Rebecca Smith (mezzo-soprano) and Andrew Millington (organ). Nigel Perrin conducts. Tickets from 01392 665885 and exeterfestivalchorus.org.uk

Tuesday 21st November
until Friday 15th December

Exhibition: A Celebration of Exeter Cathedral and its Choristers at Christmas

Original work inspired by the Cathedral's architecture, community, worshipping life and, of course, its Choristers.

The exhibition brings together work by artists with connections to the Westcountry, all part of a project to support the work of the Cathedral Choir. Christmas cards featuring some of the work on display will be available to purchase from the Cathedral Shop, Exeter Christmas Market and Cards for Good Causes. Cathedral admission charge applies

Tuesday 21st November at 17.30

Choral Evensong celebrating the 30th anniversary of the Music Foundation Trust on the Feast of the Cathedral's Dedication with music led by the Cathedral Choir.

November 2017

The Cathedral Shop

Saturday 25th November at 19.30

Concert: A Sea Symphony

A combined choir of over 200 voices drawn from Exeter, Exmouth and Wellington Choral Societies, joined by the Exeter Symphony Orchestra and soloists to performance Vaughan Williams A Sea Symphony. Laurence Blyth conducts. Tickets from 01392 665700 and seasymphony.org.uk

Open Monday to Saturday 10.00-16.00
and Sundays 11.30-16.00

Find us inside the Cathedral.

Handel MESSIAH

Exeter Cathedral Choir
and Devon Baroque

Sunday 10th December 2017 at 14.30

Tickets from 01392 285983 and
www.exeter-cathedral.org.uk/boxoffice

CHRISTMAS With the Cathedral

Beautiful seasonal choir, organ and a

Saturday 9th December 2017 at 19.30
Thursday 14th December 2017 at 19.30

Tickets from 01392 285983 and
www.exeter-cathedral.org.uk/boxoffice

Looking ahead

Take part in the #bigLEGObuild

We're building a model of Exeter Cathedral from 300,000 LEGO® bricks and we need your help! Visit the model and add a brick for each £1 you donate.

Regular services at the Cathedral

Several services take place in Exeter Cathedral each day and there is usually an opportunity to hear the Cathedral Choir singing (during term time and at Christmas, Easter and other special days). If you are looking for a church to attend in Exeter we look forward to welcoming you.

Regular Services: Sundays

08.00 Holy Communion
08.45 Morning Prayer
10.00 Choral Eucharist
16.00 Choral Evensong
19.00 Sundays at 7*

Regular Services: Weekdays

08.00 Morning Prayer
08.20 Holy Communion
13.15 Holy Communion (Weds)
16.00 Choral Evensong (Sat)
17.30 Choral Evensong (Mo-Fr)

*On the second Sunday of the month this service is replaced by Holy Ground.

More information

If you would like to receive an email bulletin with details of future events (and help to save on printing and distribution costs) then please get in touch via email and we will add you to the news and events mailing list:

marketing@exeter-cathedral.org.uk

More information about Exeter Cathedral can be found online:

www.exeter-cathedral.org.uk

The Friends of Exeter Cathedral

The Friends is a charitable organisation founded in 1929 to co-operate with the Dean and Chapter in helping to preserve and improve the fabric and furnishings of this wonderful building, (some of which dates back to the 12th century) with its ministry and music, and so plays an invaluable part in ensuring the long tradition of worship and praise continues well into the future.

If you would like more information about how to join the Friends of Exeter Cathedral please contact the office by email friends@exeter-cathedral.org.uk or telephone 01392 423931 (09.00-13.00, Monday to Thursday).

More information is also available from the Cathedral website:

www.exeter-cathedral.org.uk

The Cathedral Café

Open Monday to Saturday 09.30-16.00
Closed Sundays

