Collect: Lord of all power and might, the author and giver of all good things: graft in our hearts the love of your name, increase in us true religion, nourish us with all goodness, and of your great mercy keep us in the same; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

First Reading: Jeremiah 23:1-6

Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! says the Lord. Therefore, thus says the Lord, the God of Israel, concerning the shepherds who shepherd my people: It is you who have scattered my flock, and have driven them away, and you have not attended to them. So I will attend to you for your evil doings, says the Lord. Then I myself will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the lands where I have driven them, and I will bring them back to their fold, and they shall be fruitful and multiply. I will raise up shepherds over them who will shepherd them, and they shall not fear any longer, or be dismayed, nor shall any be missing, says the Lord. The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. In his days Judah will be saved and Israel will live in safety. And this is the name by which he will be called: 'The Lord is our righteousness.'

Gospel: Mark 6:30-34, 53-end

The apostles returned from their mission. They gathered around Jesus, and told him all that they had done and taught. He said to them, 'Come away to a deserted place all by yourselves and rest a while.' For many were coming and going, and they had no leisure even to eat. And they went away in the boat to a deserted place by themselves. Now many saw them going and recognized them, and they hurried there on foot from all the towns and arrived ahead of them. As he went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion for them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things. When they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret and moored the boat. When they got out of the boat, people at once recognized him, and rushed about that whole region and began to bring the sick on mats to wherever they heard he was. And wherever he went, into villages or cities or farms, they laid the sick in the market-places, and begged him that they might touch even the fringe of his cloak; and all who touched it were healed.

Post Communion: Lord God, whose Son is the true vine and the source of life, ever giving himself that the world may live: may we so receive within ourselves the power of his death and passion that, in his saving cup, we may share his glory and be made perfect in his love; for he is alive and reigns, now and for ever.

St Vladimir statue vandalism: the statue of St Vladimir, on the North Porch, was badly damaged during an act of vandalism on Saturday 7 July 2018. Repairs and reinstatement are estimated to cost £3,000 and a fundraising page is now live at www.exeter-cathedral.org.uk/vladimir

Topping Out the East Gable: a short ceremony was held at the top of the Cathedral on 4 July to mark the end of the East Gable Project. You can watch the video online www.exeter-cathedral.org.uk

Safeguarding All staff and the majority of volunteers have so far completed the training. All staff have to complete the first level of training – known as C0 - by the end of July. If you have not booked onto the training, please contact Catherine Escott urgently (catherine.escott@exeter-cathedral.org.uk) If you haven't done the training by the end of July, then you will be asked to stand down from your role until it is completed.

On Wednesday 25 July, we are welcoming visitors from our link dioceses of Thika (Kenya) and Cyprus and the Gulf. At 4.30pm, all are welcome for a cup of tea in the Chapter House, when there will be a chance for informal conversation. At 5.30pm, there will be a Solemn Eucharist, celebrated by the Bishop, and the preacher will be the Venerable Bill Schwartz, whose theme will be the challenges of Christian life in the Middle East today. Please try to come along for this special event.
