Collect

LORD of all power and might,
who art the author and giver of all good things: Graft in our hearts the love of thy name,
increase in us true religion,
nourish us with all goodness,
and of thy great mercy keep us
in the same; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Anthem

Now, now that the sun hath veil'd
his light
And bid the world goodnight;
To the soft bed my body I dispose,
But where shall my soul repose?
Dear, dear God, even in Thy arms,
And can there be any so sweet security!
Then to thy rest, O my soul!
And singing, praise the mercy
That prolongs thy days.
Hallelujah!

Text: William Fuller (1608-1675)
Music: Henry Purcell (1659-95)

Preacher

The Revd Canon Cate Edmonds,
Canon Steward

Voluntary

Voluntary in G,
Henry Purcell (1659-95)

Notices

Masks in the cathedral.

Following the introduction of new laws around wearing masks in shops and new guidance from the Church of England, the Cathedral is strongly advising members of the congregation at all services, visitors, volunteers, and staff to wear masks when in the cathedral. Other than when officiating at worship or preaching – when clergy are far from other people and their voices need to be heard – clergy will be adhering to this policy, and would be grateful if all others would do so too.

Salcombe Dairy @ Exeter Cathedral. We are not permitted to provide refreshments after the service, but Coffee and refreshments are on sale outside the West Front today and during the week . We hope you will be able to meet safely with each other over a hot drink on the Green.

Quiet Day: Saturday 22 August, 1000-1600. With in-person and online options to participate. Five months from the start of lockdown, a chance to bring to God the feelings, responses, and questions that Coronavirus, illness, and lockdown have raised in us – and to continue to integrate them into our living with and for God. More to follow...
