Book of Common Prayer p236

THE COLLECT -

O Almighty God, who alone canst order the unruly wills and affections of sinful men; Grant unto thy people, that they may love the thing which thou commandest, and desire that which thou dost promise; that so, among the sundry and manifold changes of the world, our hearts may surely there be fixed, where true joys are to be found; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE EPISTLE -

St. James 1.17-21

Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning. Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of first-fruits of his creatures. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath; for the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God. Wherefore lay apart all filthiness and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the engrafted word, which is able to save your souls.

THE GOSPEL -

St. John 16.5-15

Jesus said unto his disciples, Now I go my way to him that sent me, and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou? But, because I have said these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your heart. Nevertheless, I tell you the truth; it is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you. And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgement: of sin, because they believe not on me; of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more; of judgement, because the prince of this world is judged. I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now. Howbeit, when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come. He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you. All things that the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall shew it unto you.

Slow Book Group:

Being Disciples: Essentials of the Christian Life* by Rowan Williams

A slow book group is being planned for those who wish to study this little gem of Christian teaching together. Meetings will take place on the third Thursday of each month between 19.00 and 20.30 during May, June and July. Whether you are relatively new to Christian living or seeking refreshment Being Disciples is, in many ways, an ideal book to study together. If you would like to sign up for a place or have any questions please email Rev'd Phil Wales, Distinctive Deacon (phil.wales@exeter-cathedral.org.uk).

Thy Kingdom Come is a worldwide wave of prayer from Ascension Day to Pentecost – this year 13 – 23 May. Full details of how to join in nationally and locally available in Cathedral News, published today. In particular, please look out for...

Labyrinth Workshops. We are putting a Labyrinth on the Cathedral Green over the summer, a pilgrim path, inviting us to walk slowly to discover God at the centre of all things. We are delighted that Canon Karen Curnock will lead two workshops at the Labyrinth, One Path, Many Journeys, on Tues 18th and Sat 22nd May at 10am. To book one of these, please go to the cathedral's Eventbrite page. Cost £5 + booking fee.

Disabled Toilet. Please note that this toilet, in the Vestries area, is not to be used by the congregation (unless a congregation member is disabled). This is to reduce traffic around the choir's vesting area and helps them to maintain required social distancing. Toilets area available in the cloisters. Please ask for directions. The entry code is 9616
