#TenFiftyExeter

Everything we serve at Ten Fifty comes from carefully selected, local suppliers.

Spring water

Devonia Water, Ashburton, Devon
Suppliers of natural spring water bottled at source in south Devon, Devonia Water collects all of its empty bottles, washes and reuses them, to make a much smaller carbon footprint.

Cold drinks

Bradleys, Hewish, Somerset
All-natural fruit-based drinks made at the Bradleys farm in North Somerset. Free of chemicals, preservatives and concentrates, and vegetarian and vegan friendly too! Bradleys actively support their local community through the Trussel Trust, Bristol Children's Hospital and local sports sponsorship.

Cakes, scones & tray bakes

Truly Treats, Kingsteignton, Devon
A family business creating handmade cakes, scones, cupcakes and traybakes from their artisan bakery on the south Devon coast.

Ice Cream

Salcombe Dairy, Salcombe, Devon
Salcombe Dairy's award-winning ice cream is made using Devonshire milk, at their small factory near the harbour of Salcombe - Devon's southernmost town.

Coffees, teas & chocolate flakes

The Coffee Company & The Devon Tea Company, Newton Abbot, Devon
Fairtrade, Organic and Rainforest Alliance certified speciality coffees. Teas come in biodegradable pyramid tea bags. All of The Devon Tea Company's tea suppliers are members of the Ethical Tea Partnership, a not for profit membership organisation that works to improve tea sustainability, the lives of tea workers, and the environment in which tea is produced.

Did you know?

Ten Fifty (or 1050) is the date of the foundation of Exeter Cathedral. All profits from sales at Ten Fifty café will be used to help maintain and conserve this ancient and important building for future generations.
