THE COLLECT

O Lord, we beseech thee mercifully to hear us; and grant that we, to whom thou hast given an hearty desire to pray, may by thy mighty aid be defended and comforted in all dangers and adversities; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE EPISTLE

1 Peter 5.5-11

All of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble. Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time; casting all your care upon him, for he careth for you. Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about seeking whom he may devour: whom resist stedfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world. But the God of all grace, who hath called us into his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you. To him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

THE GOSPEL

Luke 15.1-10

Then drew near unto him all the Publicans and sinners for to hear him. And the Pharisees and Scribes murmured, saying, This man receiveth sinners, and eateth with them. And he spake this parable unto them, saying, What man of you having an hundred sheep, if he lose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it? And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing. And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying unto them, Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost. I say unto you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine just persons, which need no repentance. Either what woman having ten pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seek diligently till she find it? And when she hath found it, she calleth her friends and her neighbours together, saying, Rejoice with me, for I have found the piece which I had lost. Likewise, I say unto you, There is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.

A new exhibition, 'Density and Lightness', comes to the Cathedral from 12 June to 30 August. It is the result of a collaboration between South West Sculptors and Exeter Cathedral. It features 75 sculptures from 24 artists, all working in the South West. The exhibit includes pieces made from stone, wood, ceramic, bronze, plaster and glass. The installations have been carefully curated and juxtapositioned to highlight links between the guest sculptures and the Cathedral's own permanent works. Throughout the exhibition, we will be welcoming the exhibitors to the Cathedral to answer questions about the sculptures. We are sure you will join us in welcoming the South West Sculptors to Exeter Cathedral.

Cathedral Survey: Exeter Cathedral is one of Europe's great cathedrals, much loved and appreciated by those who visit and worship with us. The building however is in urgent need of repair. With significant support from the National Lottery Heritage Fund and other generous funders we aim to improve our welcome to this beautiful building, safeguard our heritage and ensure more and a wider range of people have a chance to be part of our new plans. We need your help to shape our ideas and secure this money for Exeter by giving us your views on how - if at all - you currently use the Cathedral Green, the Cathedral and the Library and Archive. And, how we can shape our plans to connect with more and

Cathedrals Cycle Route Challenge

A team of cyclists, arriving from Salisbury Cathedral, will be welcomed on Tuesday. Some of them departed from Newcastle Cathedral on 30 May, and are visiting all 42 English cathedrals, a distance of 2,000 miles; others are completing parts of the route. At Evensong on Tuesday, we will light a candle to mark the team's arrival in Exeter. On Wednesday, the team, accompanied by members of this Cathedral's community, including three of its canons, will set off for Truro Cathedral, arriving on Thursday afternoon. Please keep all these riders in your prayers. The cyclists will depart from this cathedral at 0930 on Wednesday. Please come and send them on their way!

Young Christian Climate Network Relay - Exeter Cathedral Welcome Service

Young Christian Climate Network is making an amazing Relay Pilgrimage across Britain – from the G7 gathering in Cornwall to Glasgow's UN COP26 climate conference in November. Christians committed to climate justice will bring a boat to raise awareness of sea level rise & storms hitting the poorest worst and first; and asks for increased climate aid, compensation and debt relief. Walkers and the boat will stop in Exeter from 29 June to 4 July, and we are hosting it overnight on 30 June.

Please join us at a service of prayer, blessing and awareness raising at Exeter Cathedral on Wednesday 30 June at 1700 led by Canon Cate Edmonds.
