THE COLLECT

Grant, O Lord, we beseech thee, that the course of this world may be so peaceably ordered by thy governance, that thy Church may joyfully serve thee in all godly quietness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE EPISTLE

1 St. Peter 3.8-15

Be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another, love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous; not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing: but contrariwise blessing; knowing that ye are thereunto called, that ye should inherit a blessing. For he that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile: let him eschew evil, and do good; let him seek peace, and ensue it. For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open unto their prayers: but the face of the Lord is against them that do evil. And who is he that will harm you, if ye be followers of that which is good? But and if ye suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are ye: and be not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled; but sanctify the Lord God in your hearts.

THE GOSPEL

St. Luke 5.1-11

It came to pass that as the people pressed upon him to hear the word of God, he stood by the lake of Gennesaret, and saw two ships standing by the lake; but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets. And he entered into one of the ships, which was Simon's, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land: and he sat down, and taught the people out of the ship. Now when he had left speaking, he said unto Simon, Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught. And Simon answering said unto him, Master, we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing; nevertheless, at thy word I will let down the net. And when they had this done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes, and their net brake. And they beckoned unto their partners which were in the other ship, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the ships, so that they began to sink. When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord. For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken; and so was also James, and John, the sons of Zebedee, which were partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not, from henceforth thou shalt catch men. And when they had brought their ships to land, they forsook all, and followed him.

Exhibition, 'Density and Lightness', comes to the Cathedral from 12 June to 30 August. It is the result of a collaboration between South West Sculptors and Exeter Cathedral. It features 75 sculptures from 24 artists, all working in the South West. The exhibit includes pieces made from stone, wood, ceramic, bronze, plaster and glass. The installations have been carefully curated and juxtapositioned to highlight links between the guest sculptures and the Cathedral's own permanent works. Throughout the exhibition, we will be welcoming the exhibitors to the Cathedral to answer questions about the sculptures. We are sure you will join us in welcoming the South West Sculptors to Exeter Cathedral.

St Boniface Way is a pilgrim route from Crediton to Exeter, part of the just-launched Devon Pilgrim project. St Boniface Way will have a launch day on Saturday 17 July. There will be a morning event, with heritage lecture in the morning in Crediton; afternoon event, with teas at Newton St Cyres; and early evening event with music and drinks at Mary Harris Chapel at Exeter University. There will be the option of walking between places – or just turn up to one place. And we are delighted that Gordon Pike will lead us in outdoors hymn singing at each venue. Full details, timings, and information will be available very soon – watch next Sunday notices. (This is the route that around 15 people from the Cathedral reced a couple of years ago – so it's great that despite delays it is now coming to fruition!)
