THE COLLECT

Lord of all power and might, who art the author and giver of all good things: Graft in our hearts the love of thy name, increase in us true religion, nourish us with all goodness, and of thy great mercy keep us in the same; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE EPISTLE

Romans 6.19-end

I speak after the manner of men, because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness, and to iniquity, unto iniquity; even so now yield your members servants to righteousness, unto holiness. For when ye were the servants of sin, ye were free from righteousness. What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death. But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life. For the wages of sin is death: but the gift of God is eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

THE GOSPEL

Mark 8.1-9

In those days the multitude being very great, and having nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples unto him, and saith unto them, I have compassion on the multitude, because they have now been with me three days, and have nothing to eat: and if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way; for divers of them came from far. And his disciples answered him, From whence can a man satisfy these men with bread here in the wilderness? And he asked them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven. And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground. And he took the seven loaves, and gave thanks, and brake, and gave to his disciples to set before them; and they did set them before the people. And they had a few small fishes; and he blessed, and commanded to set them also before them. So they did eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets. And they that had eaten were about four thousand. And he sent them away.

Exhibition, 'Density and Lightness', comes to the Cathedral from 12 June to 30 August. It is the result of a collaboration between South West Sculptors and Exeter Cathedral. It features 75 sculptures from 24 artists, all working in the South West. The exhibit includes pieces made from stone, wood, ceramic, bronze, plaster and glass. The installations have been carefully curated and juxtapositioned to highlight links between the guest sculptures and the Cathedral's own permanent works. Throughout the exhibition, we will be welcoming the exhibitors to the Cathedral to answer questions about the sculptures. We are sure you will join us in welcoming the South West Sculptors to Exeter Cathedral.

Volunteering Vacancies: We are delighted to once again be advertising for volunteers. For more information about what positions we have available and how to apply, please visit

Holy Ground with Canon Mark Oakley. today at 1800 on Zoom. 'Admitting the let-down': faith, doubt and the future of the Church. As we slowly recover some stability amidst a world pandemic, what do we reckon has happened to our emotional and rational lives? What has happened to faith and the Church, to hope and priorities? Mark Oakley is Dean of St John's College, Cambridge. He is a respected communicator and the author of a number of books on the relationship between faith and poetry, including 'The Splash of Words: Believing in Poetry'.
