Welcome to the Cathedral

The Cathedral Church of St. Peter in Exeter, founded in 1050, has been the seat [cathedra] of the president of Exeter, the symbol of his spiritual and teaching authority, for nearly 1000 years. As such the Cathedral is a centre of worship and mission for the whole of Devon. A centuries-old pattern of daily worship continues, sustained by the best of the Anglican choral tradition. The cathedral is a place of outreach, learning, and spirituality, inviting people into a richer and more engaged discipleship. The Cathedral is a destination for many pilgrims and visitors who come from near and far, drawn by the physical and spiritual heritage of this place. Exeter Cathedral belongs to all the people of Devon, and we warmly welcome you here.

Ministers

President: The Ven David Gunn-Johnson - Priest Vicar

Deacon: The Revd Preb Julian Ould - Priest Vicar

Subdeacon: The Revd Phil Wales - Assistant Curate

Preacher: The Revd Canon Cate Edmonds - Canon Steward

Holy Communion

Communion will be offered in two kinds, bread and wine. Please do not intinct the host. Please follow the directions of the sidesmen. Gluten free wafers will be available at all communion stations, if you require a gluten free wafer please indicate this to the clergy, either by saying 'gluten free' or by holding up a small piece of paper with 'gluten free' written on it. If you wish to receive a blessing only please carry this order of service with you.

Offertory

A collection will be taken during this service. Please remember to use a Gift Aid envelope if you are a UK taxpayer.

Newcomer Cards

These are available on the Cathedral Community Table.

Safeguarding

The Chapter takes the responsibility for safeguarding children and vulnerable adults seriously in their commitment to make Exeter Cathedral a safe and welcoming place. If you have any concerns please discuss them with a member of the Cathedral Chapter or contact the Cathedral Interim Safeguarding Advisor, Costa Nassaris, Tel. 01392 345909

Please note that photography and recordings are not permitted during services.

Music

We welcome and thank the choir of St Mary's Church, Horsham, Sussex who are singing our services from 27-31 July during the Cathedral Choir summer holiday.

The Gathering

Introit

The congregation remains seated. The choir sings

Locus iste a Deo factus est, inaestimabile sacramentum,
irreprehensibilis est.

*This place was made by God,
a priceless mystery;
it is without reproof.*

Text: Genesis 28:17

Music: Anton Bruckner(1824-1896)

Hymn

The congregation stands and sings

All my hope on God is founded;
he doth still my trust renew.
Me through change and chance he guideth,
only good and only true.
God unknown, he alone
calls my heart to be his own.

2. Pride of man and earthly glory, sword and crown betray his trust;
what with care and toil he buildeth,
tower and temple, fall to dust.
but God's power, hour by hour,
is my temple and my tower.

3. God's great goodness aye endureth, deep God's wisdom, passing thought:
splendour, light, and life attend him,
beauty springeth out of naught.
Evermore from God's store
new-born worlds rise and adore.

4. Daily doth th'Almighty giver bounteous gifts on us bestow;
his desire our souls delighteth,
pleasure leads us where we go.
Love doth stand at God's hand;
joy doth wait on his command.

5. Still from earth to God eternal sacrifice of praise be done, high above all praises praising for the gift of Christ his Son.
Christ doth call one and all:
ye who follow shall not fall.

Text: Robert Bridges (1844-1930)

Based on the German of Joachim Neander (1650-1680)

Tune: Michael (Herbert Howells 1892-1983)

Greeting

The president says:

In the name of the Father, and of the Son,
and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

Grace, mercy and peace
from God our Father
and the Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

And also with you.

Introduction

The president greets the congregation. The congregation remains standing.

We pray with the Bishops of the Anglican Communion as they meet at the Lambeth Conference in Canterbury. We use the prayer set for today, the sixth day of the conference, from the Community of the Holy Name, Diocese of Zululand, Anglican Church of Southern Africa.

Holy omnipresent Father, who while you are in heaven,
You looked down on earth and its surroundings.
We pray for the Anglican Communion, spread throughout the world.
We pray that you will pour out your Holy Spirit as you did at Pentecost.
Help us Lord to have passion to read and receive your word.
Send us revival and make us holy.
Help us to give generously.
We pray for the gifts of the Holy Spirit to operate freely Within the Anglican Communion.
Make all your people realise the power of accepting Jesus Christ
As the Lord and Saviour.
Rise people who will visit those who are newly born again.
We ask in Jesus Christ's name.

Amen.

Invitation to Confession

The deacon says

My brothers and sisters,
as we celebrate the presence of Christ
in word and sacrament,
let us call to mind and confess our sins.

The congregation sits.

Your righteousness, Lord, is like the strong mountains,
and your judgements are like the great deep.

Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

With you is the well of life, and in your light shall we see light. Christ, have mercy.

Christ, have mercy.

Save us, Lord.

Continue your steadfast love to those who love you,
and your salvation to the upright of heart.

Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

Absolution

The president says

Almighty God,
who forgives all who truly repent,
have mercy upon you,
pardon and deliver you from all your sins,
confirm and strengthen you in all goodness,
and keep you in life eternal;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Gloria in Excelsis

The congregation stands. The choir stands and sings

Glory be to God on high, and in earth peace,
good will towards men.

We praise thee, we bless thee, we worship thee, we glorify thee,
we give thanks to thee for thy great glory,

O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father almighty.

O Lord, the only-begotten Son Jesu Christ;

O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us.

Thou that takest away the sins of the world, receive our prayer.

Thou that sittest at the right hand of God the Father,
have mercy upon us.

For thou only art holy; thou only art the Lord;
thou only, O Christ, with the Holy Ghost,
art most high in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

The Collect

The president says

Let us pray.

Lord of all power and might,
the author and giver of all good things:
graft in our hearts the love of your name,
increase in us true religion,
nourish us with all goodness,
and of your great mercy keep us in the same;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

The congregation sits.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Colossians 3:1-11

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Colossians.

If you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth, for you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life is revealed, then you also will be revealed with him in glory. Put to death, therefore, whatever in you is earthly: fornication, impurity, passion, evil desire, and greed (which is idolatry). On account of these the wrath of God is coming on those who are disobedient. These are the ways you also once followed, when you were living that life. But now you must get rid of all such things—anger, wrath, malice, slander, and abusive language from your mouth.

Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have stripped off the old self with its practices and have clothed yourselves with the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge according to the image of its creator. In that renewal there is no longer Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave and free; but Christ is all and in all!

This is the word of the Lord
Thanks be to God.

Hymn

The congregation stands and sings

In Christ there is no east or west,
in him no south or north,
but one great fellowship of love
throughout the whole wide earth.

2. In him shall true hearts everywhere their high communion find;
his service is the golden cord,
close binding humankind.

3. Join hands, then, children of the faith, whate'er your race may be;
who serves my Father as his child is surely kin to me.

4. In Christ now meet both east and west, in him meet south and north;
all Christ like souls are one in him,
throughout the whole wide earth.

Words: John Oxenham (1852-1941)

Tune: Kilmarnock, Neil Dougall (1776-1862)

Gospel Acclamation

*The congregation turns to face the Gospel reader.
The acclamation heralds the Gospel reading.*

*The choir sings the Alleluia, then all repeat it.
The cantor sings:*

Thou O God, art praised in Sion: and unto thee shall the vow be performed in Jerusalem.

All sing the Alleluia.

Gospel Reading

Luke 12:13-21

The deacon says

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

Glory to you, O Lord.

Someone in the crowd said to Jesus, 'Teacher, tell my brother to divide the family inheritance with me.' But he said to him, 'Friend, who set me to be a judge or arbitrator over you?' And he said to them, 'Take care! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; for one's life does not consist in the abundance of possessions.' Then he told them a parable: 'The land of a rich man produced abundantly. And he thought to himself, "What should I do, for I have no place to store my crops?" Then he said, "I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build larger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. And I will say to my soul, Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; relax, eat, drink, be merry.'" But God said to him, "You fool! This very night your life is being demanded of you. And the things you have prepared, whose will they be?" So it is with those who store up treasures for themselves but are not rich towards God.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

The congregation sits.

Sermon

The Revd Canon Cate Edmonds - Canon Steward

The Nicene Creed

The congregation stands and says

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate from the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

Prayers of Intercession

The president introduces the Prayers. The congregation sits.

Lord, in your mercy.

Hear our prayer.

Merciful Father;

Accept these prayers
for the sake of your Son,
our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Liturgy of the Sacrament

The Peace

The congregation stands. The president says

Christ is our peace.

He has reconciled us to God

in one body by the cross.

We meet in his name and share his peace.

The peace of the Lord be always with you

and also with you.

Preparation of the Table

Offertory Hymn

The altar is prepared and the congregation sings

God is love: let heav'n adore him;
God is Love: let earth rejoice;
let creation sing before him,
and exalt him with one voice.
He who laid the earth's foundation,
he who spread the heav'ns above,
he who breathes through all creation,
he is love, eternal love.

2. God is Love: and he enfoldeth all the world in one embrace;
with unfailing grasp he holdeth
every child of every race.
And when humans hearts are breaking under sorrow's iron rod,
then they find that selfsame aching deep within the heart of God.

3. God is Love: and though with blindness sin afflicts the souls of all, God's eternal loving-kindness holds and guides us when we fall.
Sin and death and hell shall never o'er us final triumph gain;
God is Love, so Love for ever o'er the universe must reign.

Words: Timothy Rees (1872-1939)

Tune: Hyfrydol R.H. Pritchard (1811-1887)

Prayer over the gifts

The congregation continues to stand. The president says

Yours, Lord, is the greatness, the power,
the glory, the splendour, and the majesty;
for everything in heaven and on earth is yours.

All things come from you,
and of your own do we give you.

Eucharistic Prayer

The president sings

Father, you made the world and love your creation.
You gave your Son Jesus Christ to be our Saviour.
His dying and rising have set us free from sin and death.
And so we gladly thank you,
with saints and angels praising you, and saying

The choir sings:

Holy, holy, holy,
Lord God of hosts.
Heaven and earth are full of thy glory.
Glory be to thee, O Lord most high. Amen.
Blessed is that cometh in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

The president continues:

We praise and bless you, loving Father,
through Jesus Christ, our Lord;
and as we obey his command,
send your Holy Spirit,
that broken bread and wine outpoured
may be for us the body and blood of your dear Son.
On the night before he died he had supper with his friends and, taking bread, he praised you.
He broke the bread, gave it to them and said:
Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you;
do this in remembrance of me.
When supper was ended he took the cup of wine.
Again he praised you, gave it to them and said:
Drink this, all of you;
this is my blood of the new covenant,
which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.
So, Father, we remember all that Jesus did,
in him we plead with confidence his sacrifice
made once for all upon the cross.
Bringing before you the bread of life and cup of salvation,
we proclaim his death and resurrection
until he comes in glory.

The deacon says

Great is the mystery of faith:

Christ has died:

Christ is risen:

Christ will come again.

Lord of all life,

help us to work together for that day

when your kingdom comes and justice and mercy will be seen in all the earth.

Look with favour on your people,

gather us in your loving arms and bring us with the Blessed Virgin Mary, St Peter and all the saints to feast at your table in heaven.

Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ,

in the unity of the Holy Spirit,

all honour and glory are yours, O loving Father,

for ever and ever.

The Lord's Prayer

Let us pray with confidence in the words our Saviour has taught us.

Our Father, who art in heaven,

hallowed be thy name;

thy kingdom come; thy will be done;

on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation;

but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,

the power and the glory,

for ever and ever.

Amen.

Breaking of the Bread

The president breaks the consecrated bread

We break this bread
to share in the body of Christ.

Though we are many, we are one body,
because we all share in one bread.

Giving of Communion

Jesus is the Lamb of God
who takes away the sin of the world.
Blessed are those who are called to his supper.

Lord, I am not worthy to receive you,
but only say the word, and I shall be healed.

*If you wish to receive communion please follow the directions of the sidesmen, joining the appropriate queue and returning to your seats via the side aisles. If you wish to receive a blessing please hold up this book to indicate that you wish to receive a blessing.

Gluten Free hosts are available—simply say “Gluten Free.”

Agnus Dei

The choir sings

O Lamb of God
that takest away the sins of the world,
have mercy upon us.

O Lamb of God
that takest away the sins of the world,
have mercy upon us.

O Lamb of God
that takest away the sins of the world,
grant us thy peace.

During the distribution of communion, the choir sings

Here, O my Lord, I see thee face to face;
here faith can touch and handle things unseen;
here would I grasp with firmer hands thy grace;
and all my weariness upon thee lean.

Here would I feed upon the bread of God,
here drink with thee the royal wine of heav'n;
here would I lay aside each earthly load,
and taste afresh the calm of sin forgiv'n.

Text: Horatius Bonar (1808-1889)

Music: Percy Whitlock (1903-1946)

Prayers after Communion

The congregation stands

Let us pray.

Lord God, whose Son is the true vine and the source of life,
ever giving himself that the world may live:
may we so receive within ourselves
the power of his death and passion
that, in his saving cup,
we may share his glory and be made perfect in his love;
for he is alive and reigns, now and for ever.

Amen.

Almighty God, we thank you for feeding us with the body and blood of your Son Jesus Christ.
Through him we offer you our souls and bodies
to be a living sacrifice.
Send us out in the power of your Spirit to live and work
to your praise and glory.
Amen.

The congregation sits. Notices are given.

Hymn

The congregation stands and sings

Now thank we all our God,
with heart and hands and voices,
who wondrous things hath done,
in whom his world rejoices;
who from our mother's arms
hath blessed us on our way
with countless gifts of love, and still is ours today.

2. O may this bounteous God through all our life be near us, with ever joyful hearts
and blessed peace to cheer us;
and keep us in his grace,
and guide us when perplexed,
and free us from all ills,
in this world and the next.

3. All praise and thanks to God the Father now be given,
the Son, and him who reigns
with them in highest heaven,
the one eternal God,
whom earth and heaven adore,
for thus it was, is now,
and shall be evermore.

Words: Martin Rinkart (1586-1649)

Tr Catherine Winkworth (1827-1878)

Tune: Nun Danket, Johann Crüger (c.1647)

The Dismissal

The president says

May God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who is the source of all goodness and growth,
pour his blessing upon all things created,
and upon you his children,
that you may use his gifts to his glory and the welfare of all peoples;
and the blessing of God almighty,
the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit,
be among you and remain with you always.
Amen.

The deacon says

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
In the name of Christ. Amen.
