Activity One

Our Librarian regularly displays books in the Cathedral. Imagine you are telling visitors about this book, what three things might you say about it and why?

You can complete this activity in written form (max 200 words), via video, or via a phone conversation.

Activity Two

The Cathedral Archives contain records of the history of the Cathedral, such as pictures, videos and written documents. Imagine you are putting together a box of things from your life, what three items would you include and why?

You can complete this activity in written form (max 200 words), via video, or via a phone conversation. If you have the objects available, please feel free to submit a picture of what you would put in your archive box alongside your written piece.
