Foreword by the Dean of Exeter The Very Reverend Jonathan Greener

Here at Exeter Cathedral, we take safeguarding very seriously, and the maintenance of this Handbook is one of the ways in which we embed good practice at every level of cathedral life. Helping everyone to comprehend and embrace what good practice looks like requires a multi-pronged approach, but this Handbook provides us all with a comprehensive overview of our safeguarding policies and practice.

Our understanding of safeguarding has evolved considerably in recent years, during which the whole idea of safeguarding has risen to prominence and continues of course to do so. It was in 1995 that the Church of England introduced its first Child Protection Policy. Since those early days, our understanding of safeguarding has deepened and broadened in many ways.

- We are so much more conscious of our past, and of the need to hear the voice of survivors and victims.
- We recognise that we need to take special care of vulnerable adults as well as children.
- We acknowledge the need for clear policies, routinely reviewed and updated, and regular training for anyone in a position of responsibility.
- More than that, we now appreciate that it is the vocation of every Christian to be vigilant in making our churches safe, welcoming places, where everyone is enabled to flourish.

There is a great deal of safeguarding related legislation, but for us the driving force has to be theological. Our loving God cares deeply for every single one of his children, and it falls to us, the Church, to embrace and embody that care in our daily life. As an institution, we have to do so systematically. As Christian people, we are called to reflect that love to everyone we meet. The people of God working together can be a real beneficial force, as shown by the widespread embracing of good safeguarding practice. There can never be room for complacency, but the direction of travel is positive, and surely something to be celebrated and built upon.

It is vitally important that anyone with concerns should take them further, and at the very least, this Handbook will enable you to do that.

Thank you for all you do to help the Cathedral to be a safe and welcoming place. Please take the time to read this Handbook carefully, so that we can all play our part in building an inclusive and considerate community, which gives proper care and attention to all who come through our doors.

Purpose of the Handbook

The purpose of this guide is to provide guidance to our staff and volunteers to the support, nurture, protection and safeguarding of all who come into contact with the Cathedral, especially the young and the vulnerable, and recognise that safeguarding is a collective responsibility of the whole church community.

The contents of this Handbook apply to all Church Officers/Office holders and volunteers. Full understanding of, and adherence to, the national and local policies and guidelines should lead to a deepening in the understanding of, and respect for, the rights of children, young people and vulnerable adults as people of faith in the life of the Church.

Under section 5 of the Safeguarding and Clergy Discipline Measure 2016, all authorised clergy, bishops, archdeacons, licensed readers and lay workers, churchwardens and PCCs must have 'due regard' to safeguarding guidance issued by the House of Bishops (this will include both policy and practice guidance).

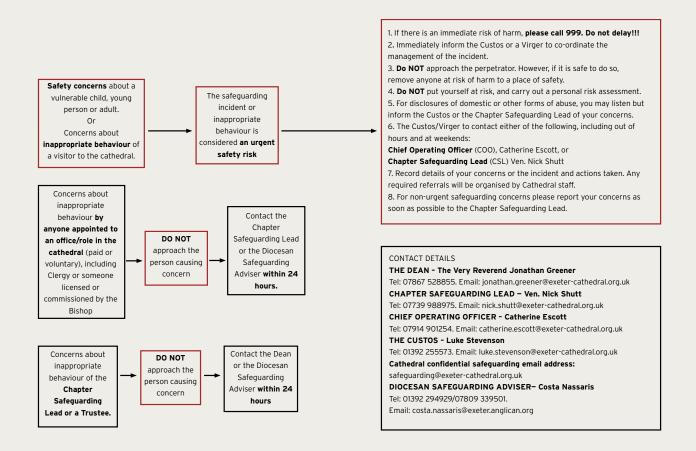

A duty to have 'due regard' to guidance means that the person under the duty is not free to disregard it but is required to follow it unless there are cogent reasons for not doing so. ('Cogent' for this purpose means clear, logical and convincing.) Failure by clergy to comply with the duty imposed by the 2016 Measure may result in disciplinary action.

Safeguarding is everyone's responsibility

Exeter Cathedral's Chapter is fully committed to safeguarding and ensures that appropriate steps are taken to maintain a safer environment for all to practise fully and positively Christ's ministry towards children, young people, and adults; to respond sensitively and compassionately to their needs in order to help keep them safe from harm.

This Handbook sets out our commitment to safeguarding and how safeguarding forms part of our daily lives.

Responding to safeguarding concerns

Introduction

Exeter Cathedral dates back more than 900 years - though there has been a Christian presence on the site since Roman times. It is the seat of the Bishop of Exeter, and serves the whole county of Devon, along with the many visitors and tourists who visit this lovely city each year.

The Cathedral community comprises the Chapter, salaried staff, and many volunteers, who work to support its liturgical and music activities, the experience of visitors, and the upkeep of the historic building. It is primarily a centre of worship and mission. It has a fine and ongoing tradition of choral music, with Evensong every day of the week. It runs a successful Christmas Market in its close. The Market is owned and operated by the Cathedral. More widely, it promotes the building as a venue for a variety of public and private events.

The Cathedral is visited by individuals and groups of tourists - almost 100,000 annually - as well as schools, and other bodies who use it as a meeting place, such as the Mothers' Union. There are private and commercial events of numerous kinds, so that it is often open much later in the evening than might be expected. The Cathedral provides outreach including a Pastoral Support Team and support for the homeless and vulnerably housed people.

The Chapter has committed the Cathedral community to the support, nurture, protection and safeguarding of all who come into contact with the Cathedral, especially the young and the vulnerable, and recognise that safeguarding is a collective responsibility of the whole church community.

The Chapter is fully committed to ensuring the Cathedral acts within current legislation, guidance, national frameworks and the Diocesan Safeguarding procedures and promotes and applies good practice across all its services and activities.

The Cathedral will act in an open, transparent and accountable way in working in partnership with the Diocesan Safeguarding Officer, Children and Adult Social Care Services, the Police, Probation Services and other agencies to safeguard children and vulnerable.

1. Reporting a safeguarding concern

In accordance with Church of England's policy, *Promoting a Safer Church the House of Bishops'*Safeguarding Policy and Practice Guidance, and the CofE Safer Environment and Activities, Exeter
Cathedral is committed to the safeguarding of children, young people, and vulnerable adults who may be at risk.

The Cathedral works in partnership with the Diocese of Exeter to ensure that we operate in accordance with best practice at all times.

The care and protection of children, young people and vulnerable adults are the responsibility of the whole Cathedral community, whether clergy, staff, volunteers, contractors or members of the congregations. As a registered charity, Exeter Cathedral's trustees must report any "Serious Incidents" occurring within their charity to the Charity Commission. The House of Bishops' guidance explains how to identify when a safeguarding Serious Incident occurs and sets out the procedure for reporting such incidents to the Charity Commission here.

4.1.1 What is a safeguarding "Serious Incident?"

A safeguarding Serious Incident is an adverse event, whether actual or alleged, which results in or risks significant harm to the Cathedral's beneficiaries, employees, office holders, volunteers or to others who come into contact with the charity through its work. This includes where there are allegations or incidents of abuse of or risks to beneficiaries or others connected with the Cathedral's activities.

- 4.1.2 The following are examples of what should be reported to the Charity Commission as a safeguarding Serious Incident:
- A) Vulnerable adults or children have been, or are alleged to have been, abused or mistreated while undertaking Cathedral activities, or by someone connected with the Cathedral or by a Church Officer, for example a trustee, a member of the clergy, an employee or a volunteer;
- B) a member of the clergy, an employee or a volunteer has been abused or mistreated (alleged or actual) and the abuse or mistreatment is connected with the activities of the Cathedral (for example it occurred during a religious service, a home visit by clergy or a pastoral visitor or an activity or event run by the Cathedral);
- C) there has been a breach of the House of Bishops' guidance or other safeguarding procedures or policies at the cathedral which has put other persons who come into contact with the Cathedral through its work at significant risk of harm, including failure to report safeguarding concerns to statutory agencies or to carry out relevant vetting checks which would have identified that a person is disqualified in law, under safeguarding legislation, from working with children, young people or adults;
- D) it is brought to the attention of the person appointed by the Chapter as the lead safeguarding person or the safeguarding officer for the Cathedral (the "Cathedral Safeguarding Officer") that an allegation has been made against a Church Officer, employee or volunteer in relation to a safeguarding matter which is not related to their work or volunteering role in the Cathedral, but the nature of the allegation is such that they are assessed as a potential risk by the Cathedral Safeguarding Advisor and action is taken to manage any identified risk that person may pose to the Cathedral's work; or
- E) alleged or actual incidents in the workplace which have resulted in or risk significant harm to trustees, employees, office holders or volunteers and are considered to be "serious" in the context of the charity. An incident should always be reported where the level of harm to the victims and/or the likely damage to the reputation of or public trust in the Cathedral and its Chapter is particularly high. For example: allegations of serious sexual abuse of and by a staff member, office holder or volunteer; abuse by a senior member of staff or office holder or if a widespread culture of bullying, abuse or sexual harassment is uncovered.

4.1.3 When should a Serious Incident be reported to the Charity Commission?

The Charity Commission expects Serious Incidents to be reported to it "promptly", i.e. as soon as is reasonably possible after it happens, or immediately after you become aware of it.

Failure to report a Serious Incident that subsequently comes to light may be considered by the Charity Commission to be mismanagement, or a serious governance failure. This could result in the Charity Commission taking regulatory action, particularly if further abuse has taken place following the initial Serious Incident that was not reported.

4.1.4 Who should make the Serious Incident Report?

The responsibility for making a Serious Incident report in a timely manner rests with the Chapter as the charity trustees but the Chapter can delegate the reporting of Serious Incidents to a third party. The reporting of safeguarding Serious Incidents to the Charity Commission should normally be delegated to the Cathedral Safeguarding Advisor / the Chapter Safeguarding Lead or the Chief Operating Officer, as appropriate using the Charity Commission's online form here.

4.1.5 Informing the NST and others about safeguarding Serious Incidents reported to the Charity Commission

Once the Chapter has reported a safeguarding Serious Incident to the Charity Commission, the Chapter must also send a copy of the Serious Incident Report, and a copy of any follow-up reports made to the Charity Commission, to the:

- NST at rsi.nst@churchofengland.org;
- · Diocesan Safeguarding Adviser;
- · Diocesan Bishop, as the Visitor for the Cathedral; and

- b) Anyone within the wider Church needs to be informed about any Serious Incident that has been reported and, if so, the NST will take the necessary steps to inform the relevant persons, complying at all times with any requirements to maintain confidentiality and to protect sensitive personal data.

5. National safeguarding standards

- 5.1. The CofE has been in the process of developing a set of National Safeguarding Standards and accompanying Quality Assurance Framework, since 2020. Read more about the National Standards and access resources/self-audit tools etc., using this link.
- 5.2. The Standards are essential for you to understand the quality and, most importantly, the impact of our safeguarding measures.
- 5.3. In addition, the Standards provide a simple construct which integrates the complexity of all of our safeguarding activities.
- 5.4. All such activities, at all levels across the Cathedral, will relate to at least one Standard. Thus, the Standards provide a means of connecting and integrating what might otherwise be experienced as disconnected activities and also enable the Church to easily communicate its commitment to safeguarding.
- 5.5. The Five National Standards are:

- 5.6. It is not expected that every Church body will be able to meet every indicator overnight. The Standards set out the direction of travel and will enable Church bodies to identify both their strengths and areas for development, which will in turn inform their strategic planning in respect of safeguarding.
- 5.7. Full details of the National Standards can be found here.

6. Safer recruitment

- 6.1 The Chapter is cognizant that Safer Recruitment and People Management is an integral part of keeping people safe in the Cathedral and complies with the principles of Safer Recruitment in compliance with the Church of England's Safer Recruitment and People Management Guidance found here, which sits alongside and works in conjunction with Human Resources policies. Hence this guidance focuses recruitment and people management and its principles that apply to all positions involving substantial contact with children and/or vulnerable adults.

- 6.7 Where in the recruitment process for any Cathedral role (paid or voluntary), information is revealed such as a significant disclosure within the DBS certificate or any other information to suggest an individual may pose a risk, a risk assessment will be carried out by the Diocesan/Cathedral Safeguarding Advisor(s) or with their guidance and support.

- 6.9 All staff will have a clearly identified supervisor.

7. Understanding abuse

What to look for, signs and symptoms of abuse

7.1. All Church Officers/Office Holders and volunteers should use the CofE Fact Sheet on Types of Abuses found here. This is a best practice reference document for use by those who have a role with children, young people and adults. It contains information about the types of abuse which can occur and how to recognise them, including physical signs and symptoms as well as behavioural changes that you might observe. Bear in mind that children, young people and adults may be subject to one type of abuse or a combination of types of abuse. It is informed by the definitions available in Working Together 2018 and the Care Act 2014.

7.2. Children

Working Together to Safeguard Children 2018 defines abuse as:

A form of maltreatment of a child. Somebody may abuse or neglect a child by inflicting harm or by failing to act to prevent harm. Children may be abused in a family or in an institutional or community setting by those known to them or, more rarely, by others (e.g. via the internet). They may be abused by an adult or adults or another child or children. Abuse is defined as four categories:

- a) Physical
- b) Sexual (e.g. grooming, child sex exploitation, neglect).
- c) Neglect
- d) Emotional

Included in the four categories of child abuse and neglect above, are a number of factors relating to the behaviour of the parents and carers which have significant impact on children such as domestic violence.

Please note that many types of abuse are also criminal offences and should be treated as such.

7.3. Adults

There are many different types of abuse and they all result in behaviour towards a person that deliberately or intentionally cause harm.

The types of abuse are:

- a) Physical abuse
- b) Sexual abuse
- c) Psychological abuse
- d) Financial and material abuse
- e) Modern slavery
- f) Discriminatory abuse
- g) Domestic violence or abuse
- h) Organisational or institutional abuse
- i) Neglect or acts of omission
- j) Self-neglect

- 7.4. The Chapter has committed the Cathedral community to the support, nurture, protection, and safeguarding of all who come into contact with the Cathedral, especially the young and the vulnerable and recognise that safeguarding is the collective responsibility of the whole church community.
- 7.5. In order look out for and look after those who may be vulnerable to abuse and to those who may pose a risk, it is important that staff and volunteers understand and know 'what to look out for', which is why the Cathedral considers training of staff an imperative.
- 7.6. Abuse against children, young people and adults can happen in public, but it is more likely that it will happen in secret; or at home; and away from the public gaze. That is why it is important that we know what to look for and be aware of; and where we are concerned by what we observe or are told, staff and volunteers are confident and know how to respond and form whom to seek advice.
- 7.7. In addition to the training provided, there are a number of resources that give an overview of the signs and symptoms of abuse, including domestic abuse; and how to raise concerns if you are worried about a particular situation. These are not detailed or exhaustive. We do not ask that staff and volunteers to become an expert, nor are they expected to become a detective we want everyone to be vigilant and alert and to have the confidence to know what to do, who to contact and share if a concern arises.

8. Supporting and caring for survivors of abuse

- 8.1. The Cathedral will always offer informed pastoral care and support for survivors of abuse.
- 8.2. We recognise that we are not professional counsellors, or experts in giving practical or legal advice and guidance, so we will always support an individual to seek/or signpost them to other services and bodies that may also be able to help with advice and guidance.
- 8.3. An Authorised Listening Service is provided through First Light an independent specialist support service for victims and survivors of abuse. Referral can be made directly or through the Cathedral Safeguarding Advisor.
- 8.4. More information can be found on the Diocese of Exeter website: here.

9. Safe spaces for victims and survivors

Safe Spaces is a free and independent support service, providing a confidential, personal and safe space for anyone who has been abused through their relationship with either the Church of England, the Catholic Church of England and Wales or the Church in Wales.

The service is for those who may have experienced any form abuse, including sexual abuse, physical abuse, financial abuse, psychological abuse (including spiritual abuse), domestic abuse, coercive and controlling behaviour.

Further details can be found on their website here.

10. Domestic abuse

10.1. We use the diocesan policy on domestic abuse which is modelled on that of the National Church. Drawing upon the experience of professionals, it sets out principles to prevent abuse, as well as the protocols that must be followed should a problem arise. It also lists information, resources and contact details if further help is needed. It expresses our commitment to understand the dimensions of domestic abuse and, where possible, play our part in preventing and challenging it. Please refer here for further details or visit the Diocesan Safeguarding website page.

10.2. We recognise that:

- 10.2.1 All forms of domestic abuse cause damage to the survivor;
- 10.2.2 There are no stereotypical victims of abuse. Anyone can be a victim or a perpetrator; regardless of age, disability, gender, racial heritage, religious belief, sexual orientation or identity, or social position;
- 10.2.3 All victims and survivors have the right to equal protection from all types of harm or abuse;
- 10.2.4 Domestic abuse can occur in all communities, including church and faith based communities;
- 10.2.5 Domestic abuse may be a single incident, but is usually a systematic repeated pattern which escalates in severity and frequency;
- 10.2.6 Domestic abuse, if witnessed or overheard by a child, is a form of abuse;
- 10.2.7 Working in partnership with children, adults and other agencies is essential in promoting the welfare of any child or adult suffering abuse.

10.3. Response to domestic abuse

- 10.3.1 In all our activities we respond by valuing, listening to, and respecting both survivors and alleged or known perpetrators of domestic abuse, whilst appreciating the need to ensure a distance is kept between the two and refusing to condone the perpetration or continuation of any form of abuse.
- 10.3.2 When concerns are raised we respond by ensuring that those who have experienced abuse can find safety and informed help.

10.3. Response to a disclosure of domestic abuse

Your time has been well spent. The victim will know that they can return to you for further help, that they have been believed and that they are not in the wrong.

You might not be able to offer other opportunities to come and talk.

You cannot make the victim of domestic violence or abuse take any action. The most you might be able to do is listen and provide information.

Ensure you record what you have been told as a safeguarding concern, make a record of your actions and/or advice. Date the record and keep it confidentially.

- 10.3.1 In all our activities we respond by valuing, listening to and respecting both survivors and alleged or known perpetrators of domestic abuse, whilst appreciating the need to ensure a distance is kept between the two and refusing to condone the perpetration or continuation of any form of abuse.
- 10.3.2 In our publicity we respond by raising awareness about other agencies, support services, resources and expertise, through providing information in public, and gender specific areas, of relevance to survivors, children and alleged or known perpetrators of domestic abuse.
- 10.3.3 When concerns are raised we respond by ensuring that those who have experienced abuse can find safety and informed help; working with the appropriate statutory bodies during an investigation into domestic abuse, including when allegations are made against a member of the church community.
- 10.3.4 In our care we respond by ensuring that informed and appropriate pastoral care is offered to any child, young person or adult who has suffered abuse; identifying and outlining the appropriate relationship of those with pastoral care responsibilities with both survivors and alleged or known perpetrators of domestic abuse.

11. Safeguarding Training Strategy

11.1. Learning is a journey with an outcome, not an event.

Safeguarding training is focused on building healthy communities with a culture of safety, in which the wellbeing of all is ensured and nurtured. Modules reflect the national requirements across all dioceses for ensuring healthy safeguarding practice, responding well to victims and survivors of abuse in the church context. They emphasise the need to work in co-operation with the Diocesan Safeguarding Adviser and with statutory agencies in all safeguarding matters. Training for all church roles will include safer working practices which emphasise the importance of maintaining proper boundaries and a culture of "respectful uncertainty".

The Chapter has an ambition to ensure safeguarding flows from within the soul of the church and is at the centre of our faith, in our practice, in our worship, in our praying, and in our believing. The current Safeguarding Learning and Development Framework is implemented by the Cathedral working closely with the Diocese of Exeter. The courses incorporate theological principles and are characterised by a reflective learning style. There are four core safeguarding courses available via the National Safeguarding Training Portal. Please click on each course title to find out more about how to access the course:

- Basic Awareness and Foundation Modules
- Domestic Abuse Training
- Safer Recruitment Training
- Leadership Pathway Safeguarding Training
- 11.2. Completion of safeguarding training is an expectation, and for many is a mandatory requirement for their role. To maintain currency, safeguarding training should be updated at least once every three years at the highest level of attainment required for your role. There is a separate document that details the Safeguarding training requirement for every role, which can be viewed here.
- 11.3. The Cathedral adhere to the House of Bishops Guidance and National Church of England Safeguarding Training Programme. Training for those with specific roles/responsibilities will be set out in job descriptions, and in appointment and induction processes.
- 11.4. All office holders, church officers and volunteers must undertake the appropriate level training upon indication and before commencing their role. At a minimum, it is mandatory for all volunteers and staff to complete the Basic Level Safeguarding training.
- 11.5. Online training as mentioned above is available through the Church of England training portal here.
- 11.6. Refresher training is mandatory for all after three years. The current training programme requires individuals to redo the highest level of training they have completed to date, as required by their role.
- 11.7. Informal training will be provided using scenarios and update on any guidance that affects the work carried out by volunteers.

- 11.8. Updated training will be provided in accordance with the National Training Programme and opportunities to develop and broaden awareness of safeguarding matters are provided.
- 11.9. All courses are based on those set as Core and Specialist Modules as part of the Safeguarding Training and Development Practice Guidance issued by the House of Bishops. A record of attendance is maintained, and reminders sent to those who have not met minimum requirements.
- 11.10. The Safeguarding Training Strategy is evaluated, reviewed and adjusted annually in response to new legislation, policies and guidance as advised by the National Safeguarding Team, and feedback from previous training sessions.

- 12.2. In all instances we will work within the national guidelines of the Church of England with individual safety plans that will be shared with the statutory services such as probation as appropriate. These will be reviewed regularly.
- 12.3. The Cathedral Safeguarding Officer will be responsible for undertaking a risk assessment to inform the nature and appropriateness of such an individual's attendance at the Cathedral. They will work closely with clergy, stewards, and statutory bodies as appropriate to the circumstance.
