#ExeterCathedral

Welcome to the Cathedral

The Cathedral Church of St Peter in Exeter, founded in 1050, has been the seat (cathedra) of the Bishops of Exeter, the symbol of their spiritual and teaching authority, for nearly 1000 years. As such the Cathedral is a centre of worship and mission for the whole of Devon. A centuries-old pattern of daily worship continues, sustained by the best of the Anglican choral tradition. The Cathedral is a place of outreach, learning, and spirituality, inviting people into a richer and more engaged discipleship. The Cathedral is a destination for many pilgrims and visitors who come from near and far, drawn by the physical and spiritual heritage of this place. Exeter Cathedral belongs to all the people of Devon, and we warmly welcome you here.

Ministers

President: The Revd Canon Chris Palmer - Canon Treasurer

Deacon: The Revd Canon James Mustard - Canon Precentor

Subdeacon: The Revd Canon Deborah Parsons - Canon Chancellor

Preacher: The Very Revd Jonathan Greener - Dean

Order of service

The Gathering

Introit

The congregation remains seated. The choir sings

To God our strength sing loud and clear; sing loud to God our King.

To Jacob's God, that all may hear loud acclamations ring.

Prepare a hymn, prepare a song, the timbrel hither sing.

The cheerful psaltery bring along, and harp with pleasant string.

To God our strength sing loud and clear; sing loud to God our King.

Words: John Milton (1608-1674), Psalm 81:1-2

Music: Annabel Rooney

Hymn

The congregation stands and sings

1 Praise, O praise our God and King;

hymns of adoration sing:

Refrain:

For his mercies still endure

ever faithful, ever sure.

2 Praise him that he made the sun day by day his course to run: [Refrain]

3 And the silver moon by night,

shining with her gentle light: [Refrain]

4 Praise him that he gave the rain to mature the swelling grain: [Refrain]

5 And hath bid the fruitful field crops of precious increase yield: [Refrain]

6 Praise him for our harvest-store;
he hath filled the garner-floor: [Refrain]

7 And for richer food than this, pledge of everlasting bliss: [Refrain]

8 Glory to our bounteous King;
glory let creation sing:
Glory to the Father, Son,
and blest Spirit, Three in One.

Words: H.W. Baker (1821-77)

Tune: Monkland, (1740-1811)

Greeting

The president says:

In the name of the Father, and of the Son,
and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

The Lord be with you.
and also with you.

Introduction

The president greets the congregation.

The Cloister Club leader gathers the children around the banner.

The congregation says

Come to us, Lord,
as we gather here today.
Live with us, Lord
through our worship and our prayers.
Help us to hear you,
help us to know you
and help us to be with you, today, and always.
Amen.

Invitation to Confession

The deacon says

Let us confess our forgetfulness of the needs of the poor, and repent of the ways in which we waste
the resources of the world.

The congregation sits.

Almighty God, our heavenly Father,
we have sinned against you and against our neighbour in thought and word and deed, through negligence, through weakness,
through our own deliberate fault.
We are truly sorry and repent of all our sins.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, who died for us, forgive us all that is past and grant that we may serve you in newness of life to the glory of your name.
Amen.

Absolution

The president says

Almighty God, who forgives all who truly repent, have mercy upon you,
pardon and deliver you from all your sins,
confirm and strengthen you in all goodness,
and keep you in life eternal;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Gloria

The congregation stands. The choir sings

*Glory be to God on high,
and in earth peace,
good will towards men.*

*We praise thee, we bless thee,
we worship thee, we glorify thee,
we give thanks to thee
for thy great glory,
O Lord God, heavenly King,
God the Father almighty.*

*O Lord, the only-begotten Son,
Jesus Christ:*

*O Lord God, Lamb of God,
Son of the Father, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us.*

Thou that takest away the sins of the world, receive our prayer.

Thou that sittest at the right hand of God the Father, have mercy upon us.

Gloria in excelsis Deo, et in terra pax
hominibus bonae voluntatis.
Laudamus te, benedicimus te, adoramus te, glorificamus te.
Gratias agimus tibi propter magnam gloriam tuam,
Domine Deus, Rex coelestis Deus Pater omnipotens.
Domine Fili unigenite,
Jesu Christe.
Domine Deus, Agnus Dei,
filius Patris,
Qui tollis peccata mundi,
miserere nobis.
Qui tollis peccata mundi,
suscipe deprecationem nostram.
Qui sedes ad dexteram Patris,
miserere nobis.

Quoniam tu solus sanctus.	For thou only art holy;
Tu solus Dominus.	thou only art the Lord;
Tu solus altissimus, Jesu Christe.	thou only, O Christ, with the Holy Ghost, cum sancto Spiritu,	art the Most High,
in gloria Dei Patris. Amen.	in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Collect

The congregation remains standing as the president invites us to pray

Eternal God,
 you crown the year with your goodness and you give us the fruits of the earth in their season:
 grant that we may use them to your glory, for the relief of those in need and for our own well-being;
 through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you,
 in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
 one God, now and for ever.
Amen.

The congregation sits.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

A reading from the first letter of Timothy

First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for everyone, ²for kings and all who are in high positions, so that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and dignity. ³This is right and is acceptable in the sight of God our Savior, ⁴who desires everyone to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. ⁵For there is one God; there is also one mediator between God and humankind, Christ Jesus, himself human, ⁶who gave himself a ransom for all—this was attested at the right time. ⁷For this I was appointed a herald and an apostle (I am telling the truth, I am not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Hymn

The congregation stands and sings

All for Jesus! all for Jesus!

This our song shall ever be;
for we have no hope nor Saviour
if we have not hope in thee.

3. All for Jesus! at thine altar thou dost give us sweet content;

there, dear Saviour, we receive thee
in thy holy sacrament.

2. All for Jesus! thou wilt give us strength to serve thee hour by hour:
none can move us from thy presence while we trust thy love and power.

4. All for Jesus! thou hast loved us, all for Jesus! thou hast died,
all for Jesus! thou art with us,
all for Jesus, glorified!

5. All for Jesus! All for Jesus!

This the Church's song shall be, till at last the flock is gathered one in love, and one in thee.

Words: W.J. Sparrow-Simpson (1859-1952)

Tune: All for Jesus, John Stainer (1840-1901)

Gospel Acclamation

The congregation turns to face the deacon.

The acclamation heralds the Gospel reading.

The choir sings the Alleluia, then all repeat it.

The cantor sings:

Lift up your eyes, and see that the fields are ripe for harvesting.
Gather the fruit for eternal life.

All sing the Alleluia.

Gospel Reading

Matthew 6.25-33

The deacon says

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

‘Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink,* or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? ²⁶Look at the birds of the air; they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? ²⁷And can any of you by worrying add a single hour to your span of life? ²⁸And why do you worry about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they neither toil nor spin, ²⁹yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these. ³⁰But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you—you of little faith? ³¹Therefore do not worry, saying, “What will we eat?” or “What will we drink?” or “What will we wear?” ³²For it is the Gentiles who strive for all these things; and indeed your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. ³³But strive first for the kingdom of God* and his* righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

The congregation sits.

Sermon

The Very Revd Jonathan Greener - Dean

The Nicene Creed

The congregation stands and says

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate from the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

Prayers of Intercession

The president introduces the Prayers. The congregation sits.

Lord, in your mercy hear our prayer.

At the end

Merciful Father;
Accept these prayers
for the sake of your Son,
our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Liturgy of the Sacrament

The Peace

The congregation stands. The president says

The harvest of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control.

The peace of the Lord be always with you.
and also with you.

Offertory Collection

A collection is taken. Please remember to use a Gift Aid envelope if you are a UK taxpayer. You may also donate by phone or cards at the contactless points as you leave. Additionally, you may give to the Cathedral by scanning this QR code or via <https://www.exeter-cathedral.org.uk/support-us/giving-to-exeter-cathedral/>

Preparation of the Table

The altar is prepared and the congregation sings

We plough the fields and scatter
The good seed on the land,
But it is fed and watered
By God's almighty hand:
He sends the snow in winter,
The warmth to swell the grain,
The breezes, and the sunshine,
And soft, refreshing rain.

Refrain:

All good gifts around us
Are sent from heav'n above;
Then thank the Lord, oh, thank the Lord,
For all His love.

He only is the Maker
Of all things near and far;
He paints the wayside flower,
He lights the evening star;
The winds and waves obey Him,
By Him the birds are fed;
Much more to us, His children,
He gives our daily bread.

Refrain:

We thank Thee then, O Father,
 For all things bright and good,
 The seedtime and the harvest,
 Our life, our health, our food;
 Accept the gifts we offer
 For all Thy love imparts,
 And what Thou most desirest—
 Our humble, thankful hearts.

Words: Matthias Claudius (1740-1815)

Tune: Wir Pflugen, J A P Schultz (1747-1800)

Prayer over the gifts

The congregation remains standing. The president says

Yours, Lord, is the greatness, the power, the glory, the splendour, and the majesty;
 for everything in heaven and on earth is yours.
 All things come from you,
 and of your own do we give you.

Eucharistic Prayer

The president says or sings

It is indeed right and good to give you thanks and praise, almighty God and Father,
through Jesus Christ your Son.
Through him you have created us in your own image,
and made us stewards of your good creation.
Through him you teach us to exult in the birds of the air, the lilies of the field, the precious and life-giving crops of the earth.
Through him you free us from the slavery of sin, giving him to die upon the cross and to rise again for our salvation.
Through him, you begin your work of new creation, as we look for a new heaven and a new earth
in which your righteousness dwells.
Therefore, we join with angels and archangels,
and give voice to every creature under heaven,
for ever praising you and singing:

The choir sings:

Sanctus, sanctus, sanctus,	Holy, holy, holy, Lord,
Dominus Deus Sabaoth.	God of power and might,
Pleni sunt coeli, et terra	heaven and earth are full of
gloria tua.	your glory,
Hosanna in excelsis.	Hosanna in the highest.
Benedictus qui venit	Blessed is he who comes
in nomine Domini.	in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in excelsis.	Hosanna in the highest.

The president continues:

We praise and bless you, loving Father,
through Jesus Christ, our Lord;

and as we obey his command,
send your Holy Spirit,
that broken bread and wine outpoured
may be for us the body and blood of your dear Son.
On the night before he died he had supper with his friends and, taking bread, he praised you.
He broke the bread, gave it to them and said:
Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you;
do this in remembrance of me.
When supper was ended he took the cup of wine.
Again he praised you, gave it to them and said:
Drink this, all of you;
this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.
So, Father, we remember all that Jesus did,
in him we plead with confidence his sacrifice made once for all upon the cross.
Bringing before you the bread of life and cup of salvation, we proclaim his death and resurrection until he comes in glory.

The deacon says

Great is the mystery of faith:

Christ has died:

Christ is risen:

Christ will come again.

Lord of all life, help us to work together for that day when your kingdom comes and justice and mercy will be seen in all the earth.

Look with favour on your people, gather us in your loving arms and bring us with the Blessed Virgin Mary, St Peter , St Edward the Confessor and all the saints to feast at your table in heaven.
Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all honour and glory are yours, O loving Father,
for ever and ever.
Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Let us pray with confidence in the words our Saviour has taught us.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come; thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.

Breaking of the Bread

The president breaks the consecrated bread

We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.
Though we are many, we are one body,
because we all share in one bread.

Giving of Communion

Jesus is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world.
Blessed are those who are called to his supper.
Lord, I am not worthy to receive you,
but only say the word, and I shall be healed.

*The congregation sits. If you wish to receive communion please follow the directions of the sidesmen, joining the appropriate queue and returning to your seats via the side aisles. If you wish to receive a blessing please hold up this book to indicate that you wish to receive a blessing. Please do not dip the host in the wine.
Gluten-Free hosts are available—simply say “gluten-free.”*

Agnus Dei

The choir sings

Agnus Dei,
qui tollis peccata mundi,
miserere nobis.

*Lamb of God
you take away the sin of the world,
have mercy on us.*

Agnus Dei,
qui tollis peccata mundi,
dona nobis pacem.

*Lamb of God
you take away the sin of the world,
grant us peace.*

Anthem

The choir sings

Ave verum corpus natus
De Maria Virgine,
Vere passum, immolatus
In cruce pro homine:
Cuius latus perforatum
Unda fluxit et sanguine,
Esto nobis praegustatum
In mortis examine.
O dulcis, O pie,
O Jesu Fili Mariae;
Miserere mei. Amen.

*Hail the true body, born
of the Virgin Mary:
You who truly suffered and were sacrificed on the cross for the sake of man.
From whose pierced flank
flowed water and blood:
Be a foretaste for us
in the trial of death.
O sweet, O merciful,
O Jesus, Son of Mary;
Have mercy on me. Amen.*

Words: 14th Century

Music: Philip Stopford (b1977)

Prayer after Communion

The president says

Let us pray.

The congregation stands and says

Almighty God,
we thank you for feeding us with the body and blood of your Son Jesus Christ.
Through him we offer you our souls and bodies
to be a living sacrifice.
Send us out in the power of your Spirit to live and work to your praise and glory.
Amen.

The congregation sits. Notices are given.

The Dismissal

Blessing

The congregation stands. The president says

The Lord be with you
and also with you.

May God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who is the source of all goodness and growth,
pour his blessing upon all things created,
and upon you his children,
that you may use his gifts to his glory and the welfare of all peoples;
and the blessing of God almighty,
the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always.
Amen.

Dismissal

The deacon says

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.
In the name of Christ. Amen.

Hymn

The congregation remains standing and sings

Come, ye thankful people, come,
raise the song of harvest home;
all is safely gathered in,
ere the winter storms begin.
God our Maker doth provide for our wants to be supplied;
come to God's own temple, come,
raise the song of harvest home.

2 All the world is God's own field, fruit as praise to God we yield;
wheat and tares together sown are to joy or sorrow grown;
first the blade and then the ear,
then the full corn shall appear; Lord of harvest, grant that we wholesome grain and pure may be.

3 For the Lord our God shall come,
and shall take the harvest home;
from the field shall in that day
all offenses purge away, giving angels charge at last in the fire the tares to cast;
but the fruitful ears to store
in his garner evermore.

4 Even so, Lord, quickly come,
bring thy final harvest home;
gather thou thy people in,
free from sorrow, free from sin,
there, forever purified,
in thy presence to abide;
come, with all thine angels, come,
raise the glorious harvest home.

Words: Henry Alford 1810-71

Tune: St George's Windsor, George Elvey (1816-93)

A little bit of history from the Ludlows:

29th October 7:30pm - 9:00pm Sacristy

Canon Professor Morwenna Ludlow “A brief history of the Church of England”

Using her experience as a church historian Morwenna will sketch out some answers to these questions and she will suggest ways in which we might all deepen our understanding of the Church of England and its historical contexts.

Morwenna Ludlow is Professor of Christian History and Theology at the University of Exeter and Canon Theologian at Exeter Cathedral. She specialises in the theology of Christians in the Roman Empire and she studies how it has been used by later generations, including Anglicans today. Among her books is The Early Church (2008). Her current project ‘God and Good Speech in Early Christianity’ looks at how Christians reflected on the ethics and theology of how to speak well, drawing on the Bible and classical rhetorical training.

12th November 7:30pm - 9:00pm Sacristy

Professor Piers Ludlow “A brief history of Britain and Europe”

Brexit and all our recent rows and tribulations over our relationship with Europe did not come out of the blue. On the contrary, the debate about how Britain ought to relate to its European neighbours has been at the centre of British discussion and debate since the late 19th century at very least. Recapturing this past debate is important to understand both how we have ended up where we are today, what the likely effects of our current predicament are, and, to some extent at least, what our options are when looking to the future.

Piers Ludlow is Professor in the Department of International History at the London School of Economics. His main research interests lie in the history of Western Europe since 1945. He also works on the Cold War, and in particular West-West relations during the East-West struggle. His books include Dealing with Britain: The Six and the First UK Membership Application (1997) and Roy Jenkins and the European Commission Presidency, 1976-1980: At the Heart of Europe (2016). He is currently working on a book assessing and analyzing Britain's 40 plus years as member of the European Union.

(We aim to make an audio recording of both these talks and make it available on the Cathedral website.)

Exploring the Archives:

Historic Wills

Tuesday 29 October, 1pm-3pm in the Exeter Cathedral Library & Archives Reading Room

The Exeter Cathedral Library & Archives contain nearly 100 historic wills, dating from the 13th to 19th centuries – but who made those wills, why are they in the Cathedral Archives, and what can we learn from them?

At this small group session you will gain an overview of the range of wills, and related documents, in Exeter Cathedral's collections, learn how to identify some key features of historic wills in general, and spend time reading original documents to uncover the stories within.

Tickets: £20 at <https://www.ticketsource.co.uk/exetercathedral/t-gapgyno> or via the QR code. Booking is essential.

UPCOMING CATHEDRAL CONCERTS

Warming Winter Recital

Friday 15 November at 7:30pm

Join us for an unforgettable concert with the Exeter Cathedral Choir Association, in the magnificent setting of Exeter Cathedral.

The first half of the concert will include performances from internationally renowned opera singers (and Exeter Cathedral Chorister parents) Madeleine Shaw, Eamonn Mulhall, Tim Mirfin and flautist Ellen Wiles, accompanied by Exeter Cathedral's Director of Music, Timothy Noon. The programme will include music of Mahler, Fauré, Tosti and Brahms.

For the second half of the concert we will welcome the back-row of the Exeter Cathedral Choir! The Cathedral Lay Clerks and Choral Scholars will enthral the audience with a very special performance.
