As such the Cathedral is a centre of worship and mission for the whole of Devon. A centuries-old pattern of daily worship continues, sustained by the best of the Anglican choral tradition. The Cathedral is a place of outreach, learning, and spirituality, inviting people into a richer and more engaged discipleship. Order of service

The Gathering

Introit

The congregation remains seated. The choir sings

Set me as a seal upon thine heart, as a seal upon thine arm:
for love is strong as death
many waters cannot quench love neither can the floods drown it.

Words: Song of Solomon 8:6

Music: William Walton (1902-1983)

Hymn

The congregation stands and sings

By all your saints still striving,	2. We praise you Lord for Peter,
for all your saints at rest,	so eager and so bold:
your holy name, O Jesus,	thrice falling yet repentant
forevermore be blest!	thrice charged to feed your fold.
You rose, our King victorious,	Lord, make your pastors faithful that they might wear the crown	to guard your flock from harm,
and ever shine in splendour	and hold them when they waver
reflected from your throne.	with your almighty arm.

3. Then let us praise the Father and worship God the Son
and sing to God the Spirit,
eternal Three in One,
till all the ransomed number
who stand before the throne, ascribe all power and glory
and praise to God alone.

Words: Horatio Bolton Nelson (1823-1913)

Tune: Wolvercote, William H. Ferguson (1874-1950)

Greeting

The president says:

In the name of the Father, and of the Son,
and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

The Lord be with you.

and also with you.

Introduction

The president greets the congregation.

The Cloister Club leader gathers the children around the banner.

The congregation says

Creator God,

may our Cloister Club know your love as they gather today.

May they hear your voice in song, story and play.

May they be filled with joy in their worship,

and give thanks for your generous gift of creation.

This we pray through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Invitation to Confession

The deacon says

Jesus said to his apostles,

‘You are my friends if you obey my commands.’

John 15.14

Let us now confess our disobedience to him.

The congregation remains standing.

Almighty God, our heavenly Father,
we have sinned against you and against our neighbour
in thought and word and deed,
through negligence, through weakness,
through our own deliberate fault.
We are truly sorry and repent of all our sins.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, who died for us, forgive us all that is past and grant that we may serve you in newness of life
to the glory of your name.
Amen.

Absolution

The president says

Almighty God,
who forgives all who truly repent,
have mercy upon you,
pardon and deliver you from all your sins,
confirm and strengthen you in all goodness,
and keep you in life eternal;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Gloria

The congregation remains standing. The choir sings

Gloria in excelsis Deo, et in terra pax
hominibus bonae voluntatis.
Laudamus te, benedicimus te,
adoramus te, glorificamus te.
Gratias agimus tibi
propter magnam gloriam tuam,
Domine Deus, Rex coelestis
Deus Pater omnipotens.
Domine Fili unigenite,
Jesu Christe.
Domine Deus, Agnus Dei,
filius Patris,
Qui tollis peccata mundi,
miserere nobis.
Qui tollis peccata mundi,
suscipe deprecationem nostram.
Qui sedes ad dexteram Patris,
miserere nobis.
Quoniam tu solus sanctus.
Tu solus Dominus.
Tu solus altissimus, Jesu Christe.
cum sancto Spiritu,
in gloria Dei Patris. Amen.

*Glory be to God on high,
and in earth peace,
good will towards men.
We praise thee, we bless thee,
we worship thee, we glorify thee,
we give thanks to thee
for thy great glory,
O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father almighty.
O Lord, the only-begotten Son,
Jesus Christ:
O Lord God, Lamb of God,
Son of the Father,
that takest away the sins of the world,
have mercy upon us.
Thou that takest away the sins of the world, receive our prayer.
Thou that sittest at the right hand of God
the Father, have mercy upon us.
For thou only art holy;
thou only art the Lord;
thou only, O Christ,
with the Holy Ghost, art the Most High,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.*

The Collect

The congregation remains standing as the president invites us to pray

Almighty God,
who inspired your apostle Saint Peter to confess Jesus as Christ and Son of the living God:
build up your Church upon this rock,
that in unity and peace it may proclaim one truth
and follow one Lord, your Son our Saviour Christ, who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

The congregation sits.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Acts 12:1-11

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

About that time King Herod laid violent hands upon some who belonged to the church. He had James, the brother of John, killed with the sword. After he saw that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded to arrest Peter also. (This was during the Festival of Unleavened Bread.) When he had seized him, he put him in prison and handed him over to four squads of soldiers to guard him, intending to bring him out to the people after the Passover. While Peter was kept in prison, the church prayed fervently to God for him. The very night before Herod was going to bring him out, Peter, bound with two chains, was sleeping between two soldiers, while guards in front of the door were keeping watch over the prison. Suddenly an angel of the Lord appeared, and a light shone in the cell. He tapped Peter on the side and woke him, saying, "Get up quickly." And the chains fell off his wrists. The angel said to him, "Fasten your belt and put on your sandals." He did so. Then he said to him, "Wrap your cloak around you and follow me." Peter went out and followed him; he did not realize that what was happening with the angel's help was real; he thought he was seeing a vision. After they had passed the first and the second guard, they came before the iron gate leading into the city. It opened for them of its own accord, and they went outside and walked along a lane, when suddenly the angel left him. Then Peter came to himself and said, "Now I am sure that the Lord has sent his angel and rescued me from the hands of Herod and from all that the Jewish people were expecting."

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Hymn

The congregation stands and sings

Firmly I believe and truly

God is Three, and God is One;
and I next acknowledge duly manhood taken by the Son.

2. And I trust and hope most fully in that Manhood crucified;
and each thought and deed unruly
do to death, as he has died.

3. Simply to his grace and wholly light and life and strength belong, and I love supremely, solely,

him the holy, him the strong.

4. And I hold in veneration,

for the love of him alone,
holy Church as his creation,
and her teachings as his own.

5. Adoration ay be given,
with and through the angelic host,
to the God of earth and heaven,
Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Words: John Henry Newman (1801-1890)

Tune: Shipston, Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872-1958)

Gospel Acclamation

The congregation turns to face the deacon.

The acclamation heralds the Gospel reading.

The choir sings the Alleluia, then all repeat it.

The cantor sings:

I do not call you servants but friends, because I have made known to you everything that I have heard from my Father.

John 15.15

All sing the Alleluia.

Gospel Reading

Matthew 16:13-19

The deacon says

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

Glory to you, O Lord.

When Jesus came into the district of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, “Who do people say that the Son of Man is?” And they said, “Some say John the Baptist but others Elijah and still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.” He said to them, “But who do you say that I am?” Simon Peter answered, “You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God.” And Jesus answered him, “Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you but my Father in heaven. And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

The congregation sits.

Sermon

The Very Revd Jonathan Greener - Dean

The Nicene Creed

The congregation stands and says

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate from the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

Prayers of Intercession

The president introduces the Prayers. The congregation sits.

Lord, in your mercy
hear our prayer.

At the end

Merciful Father;
Accept these prayers
for the sake of your Son,
our Saviour Jesus Christ.
Amen.

The Liturgy of the Sacrament

The Peace

The congregation stands. The president says

We are fellow-citizens with the saints and of the household of God, through Christ our Lord, who came and preached peace to those who were far off and those who were near.

Ephesians 2.19,17

The peace of the Lord be always with you.
and also with you.

Offertory Collection

A collection is taken. Please remember to use a Gift Aid envelope if you are a UK taxpayer. You may also donate by phone or cards at the contactless points as you leave. Additionally, you may give to the Cathedral by scanning this QR code or via <https://www.exeter-cathedral.org.uk/support-us/giving-to-exeter-cathedral/>

Preparation of the Table

The altar is prepared and the congregation sings.

Thy hand, O God, has guided thy flock, from age to age;
the wondrous tale is written,
full clear, on every page;
our fathers owned thy goodness,
and we their deeds record;
and both of this bear witness,
one Church, one Faith, one Lord.

2. Thy heralds brought glad tidings to greatest, as to least;
they bade men rise, and hasten
to share the great King's feast;
and this was all their teaching,
in every deed and word,
to all alike proclaiming
one Church, one Faith, one Lord.

3. Through many a day of darkness, through many a scene of strife,
the faithful few fought bravely
to guard the nation's life.
their gospel of redemption,
sin pardoned, man restored,
was all in this enfolded,
one Church, one Faith, one Lord.

4. And we, shall we be faithless?
shall hearts fail, hands hang down?
Shall we evade the conflict,
and cast away our crown?
Not so: in God's deep counsels
some better thing is stored;
we will maintain, unflinching,
one Church, one Faith, one Lord.

5. Thy mercy will not fail us, nor leave thy work undone;
with thy right hand to help us,
the victory shall be won;
and then, by men and angels,
thy name shall be adored,
and this shall be their anthem,
one Church, one Faith, one Lord.

Words: Edward Plumptre (1821-1891)

Tune: Thornbury, Basil Harwood (1859-1949)

Prayer over the gifts

The congregation remains standing. The president says

Blessed are you, Lord God of all creation:
through your goodness we have this bread to set before you,
which earth has given and human hands have made.
It will become for us the bread of life.

Blessed be God for ever.

Blessed are you, Lord God of all creation:
through your goodness we have this wine to set before you,
fruit of the vine and work of human hands.
It will become for us the cup of salvation.

Blessed be God for ever.

Eucharistic Prayer

The president says

The Lord be with you
and also with you.

Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give thanks and praise.

It is indeed right and good that we should give you thanks, praise and glory, almighty and everlasting God,
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord.
For after his resurrection
he sent out his apostles and evangelists to preach the gospel to all nations and lead us in the way of truth.
Himself the chief cornerstone,
he founded his Church upon the apostles firmly to stand for ever
as a sign of your holiness upon earth and a living witness to all of the way that leads to heaven.

And so with angels and archangels,
and with all the company of heaven,
we lift our voices
and join in their unending hymn of praise:

The choir sings:

Sanctus, sanctus, sanctus,	Holy, holy, holy, Lord,
Dominus Deus Sabaoth.	God of power and might,
Pleni sunt coeli, et terra	heaven and earth are full of
gloria tua.	your glory,
Hosanna in excelsis.	Hosanna in the highest.
Benedictus qui venit	Blessed is he who comes
in nomine Domini.	in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in excelsis.	Hosanna in the highest.

The president continues:

We praise and bless you, loving Father,
through Jesus Christ, our Lord;
and as we obey his command,
send your Holy Spirit,
that broken bread and wine outpoured
may be for us the body and blood of your dear Son.
On the night before he died he had supper with his friends and, taking bread, he praised you.
He broke the bread, gave it to them and said:
Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you;
do this in remembrance of me.
When supper was ended he took the cup of wine.
Again he praised you, gave it to them and said:
Drink this, all of you;
this is my blood of the new covenant,
which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.
So, Father, we remember all that Jesus did,
in him we plead with confidence his sacrifice
made once for all upon the cross.

Bringing before you the bread of life and cup of salvation,
we proclaim his death and resurrection
until he comes in glory.

The deacon says

Great is the mystery of faith:

Christ has died:

Christ is risen:

Christ will come again.

Lord of all life, help us to work together for that day when your kingdom comes and justice and mercy will be seen in all the earth.

Look with favour on your people, gather us in your loving arms and bring us with the Blessed Virgin Mary, St Peter , St Edward the Confessor and all the saints to feast at your table in heaven.

Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all honour and glory are yours, O loving Father,
for ever and ever.

Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Let us pray with confidence in the words our Saviour has taught us.

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come; thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.

Breaking of the Bread

The president breaks the consecrated bread

We break this bread
to share in the body of Christ.
Though we are many, we are one body,
because we all share in one bread.

Giving of Communion

Jesus is the Lamb of God
who takes away the sin of the world.
Blessed are those who are called to his supper.
Lord, I am not worthy to receive you,
but only say the word, and I shall be healed.

The congregation sits. If you wish to receive communion please follow the directions of the sidesmen, joining the appropriate queue and returning to your seats via the side aisles. If you wish to receive a blessing please hold up this book to indicate that you wish to receive a blessing. Please do not dip the host in the wine.

Gluten-Free hosts are available—simply say “Gluten-Free.”

Agnus Dei

The choir sings

Agnus Dei,	Lamb of God
qui tollis peccata mundi,	you take away the sin of the world,
miserere nobis.	have mercy on us.

Agnus Dei,	Lamb of God
qui tollis peccata mundi,	you take away the sin of the world,
dona nobis pacem.	grant us peace.

Anthem

The choir sings

*Tu es Petrus
et super hanc petram aedificabo ecclesiam meam et portae inferi non praevallebunt adversus eam.
Et tibi dabo claves regni caelorum.*

*You are Peter,
And upon this Rock I will build My Church:
and the gates of hell shall not overcome it.
And I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven.*

Words: Matthew 16:18-19

Music: Giovanni Pierluigi da Palestrina (1525-1594)

Hymn

Thou art the Christ, O Lord,
the Son of God most high!'

For ever be adored

that name in earth and sky,

in which, though mortal strength may fail,
the saints of God at last prevail.

2. O surely he was blest

with blessedness unpriced,

who, taught of God, confessed

the Godhead in the Christ;

for of thy Church, Lord, thou didst own thy saint a true foundation-stone.

3. Thrice fallen, thrice restored, the bitter lesson learnt,

that heart for thee, O Lord,

with triple ardour burnt.

The cross he took he laid not down until he grasped the martyr's crown.

4. O bright triumphant faith,

O courage void of fears,

O love most strong in death,

O penitential tears!

By these, Lord, keep us lest we fall,
and make us go where thou shalt call.

In Conversation with Dr. Alison Perham on:

"We need to talk about Assisted Dying."

Sunday 13 July 2025 6:30pm The Chapter House, Exeter Cathedral

(Refreshments served from 6.00pm)

Dr. Alison Perham is a retired physician, initially working in General Practice, before specialising in Palliative Medicine. She has worked in different settings, hospitals, hospices and the community, in different parts of the country as her husband's job moved.

Having this privileged experience made her appreciate the value for families, individuals and communities of discussions around older care, and end of life care. Having seen the benefit of informed decision-making it has made her value opportunities where those discussions can be gently approached.

Her intention during the conversation is not to set herself up as an expert, but as someone who has been privileged to have witnessed, perhaps more than some, the complexities surrounding the end of our lives.

Her faith has always been, she hopes, at the core of her practice and at the heart of her own decision making. Join us for an evening of conversation and exploration followed by a short service of compline.

The Exeter Nativity has for many years and in various forms been a special part of the Cathedral's public offering for Christmas. Some members of the cast, who have been splendid performers for a long time, have decided that it is time for them to retire. That leaves several gaps which need to be filled now in order for the Nativity to be ready in time for Christmas. Acting experience and a sense of comedy timing would be an advantage but skills can be taught and learned. For more details contact David Gunn-Johnson, (dgunnjohnson549@btinternet.com / 07921 150428) for a conversation.
