In Conversation with Dr. Alison Grove on:

“Is it helpful to talk about Dying?”

TONIGHT at 6:30pm The Chapter House

(Refreshments served from 6.00pm)

Alison Grove is a retired physician, initially working in General Practice, before specialising in Palliative Medicine. She has worked in different settings, hospitals, hospices and the community. Having this experience made her appreciate the value for families, individuals and communities of discussions around older care, and end of life care. Her intention during the conversation is not to set herself up as an expert, but as someone who has been privileged to have witnessed the complexities surrounding the end of our lives. Her faith has always been, she hopes, at the core of her practice, and at the heart of her own decision making.

Join us for an evening of conversation and exploration followed by a short service of compline.
