Through the Frontispiece

Thursday 9 July 2026 | Drop in 1pm-3pm | Library & Archives Reading Room
Engraved frontispieces emerged in early modern Europe as gateways to books. Produced by skilled engravers, they combined portraiture, allegory, and decorative design to signal a work's themes, prestige, and authorship. Step through the frontispiece, and discover how a single image can open the door to an entire narrative. This is a free drop-in event; no booking is required.

Timothy Noon

Thursday 16 July 2026 | 7pm | £4 - £10

Entitled 'The King of Instruments', the programme takes its name from a 1970 LP recording that first inspired a young Timothy Noon (now Director of Music at Exeter Cathedral) to take up the organ 40 years ago. Now, in a full-circle moment, he returns to that same collection of works in a concert that is proudly billed as "an introduction to the enjoyment of organ music."
