Welcome to the Cathedral

The Cathedral Church of St Peter in Exeter, founded in 1050, has been the seat (cathedra) of the Bishops of Exeter, the symbol of their spiritual and teaching authority, for nearly 1000 years. As such the Cathedral is a centre of worship and mission for the whole of Devon. A centuries-old pattern of daily worship continues, sustained by the best of the Anglican choral tradition. The Cathedral is a place of outreach, learning, and spirituality, inviting people into a richer and more engaged discipleship. The Cathedral is a destination for many pilgrims and visitors who come from near and far, drawn by the physical and spiritual heritage of this place. Exeter Cathedral belongs to all the people of Devon, and we warmly welcome you here.

Saint Sidwell

was an 8th-century West Saxon virgin-martyr and patron saint of Exeter, venerated in the Catholic, Orthodox, and Anglican traditions. Known in Latin as Sativola, she was legendarily beheaded with a scythe by reapers hired by her jealous stepmother. A healing spring was said to emerge where her head fell, becoming a pilgrimage site. Her feast is observed on 2 August, and she is depicted with a scythe and a well. The image of Sidwell on the front cover is from the Cathedral's Great East Window.

Order of service

The Gathering

Introit

The congregation remains seated. The choir sings

Locus iste a Deo factus est.

Inestimabile sacramentum irreprehensibilis est.

This place was made by God.

A priceless mystery, it is beyond reproach.

Words: Gradual, the Dedication of a Church

Music: Carlton Monroe

Hymn

The congregation stands and sings

All my hope on God is founded;
he doth still my trust renew.
me through change and chance he guideth,
only good and only true.

God unknown,
he alone
calls my heart to be his own.

Pride of man and earthly glory,
sword and crown betray his trust;
what with care and toil he buildeth, tower and temple, fall to dust
but God's power,
hour by hour,
is my temple and my tower.

God's great goodness aye endureth, deep his wisdom, passing thought:
splendour, light and life attend him,
beauty springeth out of naught.
evermore
from his store
new-born worlds rise and adore.

Daily doth th'Almighty giver bounteous gifts on us bestow;
his desire our soul delighteth, pleasure leads us where we go.
Love doth stand
at his hand;
joy doth wait on his command.

Still from man to God eternal sacrifice of praise be done, high above all praises praising for the gift of Christ his Son.
Christ doth call
one and all:
ye who follow shall not fall.

Words: Robert Bridges (1844-1930)

Based on the German of J. Neander (1650-1680)

Tune: Michael, Herbert Howells (1892-1983)

Greeting

The president says:

In the name of the Father,
and of the Son,
and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

The Lord be with you.

and also with you.

Introduction

The president greets the congregation. The congregation says the following prayer during the current summer holiday.

Thank you Lord for families on their summer break.

May their days be filled with fun, laughter and joy in your creation.

May your love surround and protect them always.

Bless them in all their activities and may your light guide them now and forever. Amen.

Invitation to Confession

The deacon says

My brothers and sisters, as we prepare to celebrate the presence of Christ in word and sacrament, let us call to mind and confess our sins.

The congregation remains standing.

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, we have sinned against you and against our neighbour in thought and word and deed, through negligence, through weakness,
through our own deliberate fault.
We are truly sorry and repent of all our sins.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, who died for us, forgive us all that is past and grant that we may serve you in newness of life to the glory of your name. Amen.

Absolution

The president says

Almighty God, who forgives all who truly repent, have mercy upon you,
pardon and deliver you from all your sins,
confirm and strengthen you in all goodness,
and keep you in life eternal;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Gloria in Excelsis

The congregation remains standing. The choir sings

Glory be to God on high, and in earth peace, good will towards men.
We praise thee, we bless thee, we worship thee, we glorify thee,
we give thanks to thee for thy great glory,
O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father almighty.
O Lord, the only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ: O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, that takest away the sins of the world,
have mercy upon us.

Thou that takest away the sins of the world, receive our prayer.
Thou that sittest at the right hand of God the Father,
have mercy upon us.
For thou only art holy; thou only art the Lord; thou only, O Christ, with the Holy Ghost, art the Most High, in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

The Collect

The congregation remains standing as the president invites us to pray

Almighty God,
by whose grace and power your holy martyr Sidwell triumphed over suffering, was faithful unto death and became a light for this city, strengthen us with your grace that we may endure reproach and persecution and faithfully bear witness to the name of Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.
Amen.

The congregation sits.

The Liturgy of the Word

The First Reading

Romans 9:1-5

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Romans.

I am speaking the truth in Christ - I am not lying; my conscience confirms it by the Holy Spirit - I have great sorrow and unceasing anguish in my heart. For I could wish that I myself were accursed and cut off from Christ for the sake of my own people, my kindred according to the flesh. They are Israelites, and to them belong the adoption, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the worship, and the promises; to them belong the patriarchs, and from them, according to the flesh, comes the Messiah, who is over all, God blessed for ever. Amen.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Hymn

The congregation stands and sings

Fight the good fight with all thy might,
Christ is thy strength, and Christ thy right;
lay hold on life, and it shall be thy joy and crown eternally.

Run the straight race through God's good grace, lift up thine eyes, and seek his face;
life with its way before us lies,
Christ is the path, and Christ the prize.

Cast care aside, upon thy Guide lean, and his mercy will provide;
lean, and the trusting soul shall prove Christ is its life, and Christ its love.

Faint not nor fear, his arms are near,
he changeth not, and thou art dear;
only believe, and thou shalt see that Christ is all in all to thee.

Words: J.S.B. Monsell (1811-1875)

Tune: Duke Street, J. Hatton (d1793)

Gospel Acclamation

The congregation turns to face the deacon.

The acclamation heralds the Gospel reading.

The choir sings the Alleluia, then all repeat it.

The cantor sings:

Whoever would become my followers, let them deny themselves, take up their cross and follow me.

All sing the Alleluia.

Gospel Reading

Matthew 14:13-21

The deacon says
The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

Glory to you, O Lord.

When Jesus heard that Herod had beheaded John the Baptist, he withdrew in a boat to a deserted place by himself. But when the crowds heard it, they followed him on foot from the towns. When he went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion for them and cured their sick. When it was evening, the disciples came to him and said, "This is a deserted place, and the hour is now late; send the crowds away so that they may go into the villages and buy food for themselves." Jesus said to them, "They need not go away; you give them something to eat." They replied, "We have nothing here but five loaves and two fish." And he said, "Bring them here to me." Then he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven, and blessed and broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds. And all ate and were filled; and they took up what was left over of the broken pieces, twelve baskets full. And those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

The congregation sits.

Sermon

The Ven Hilary Dawson – Canon Treasurer

The Nicene Creed

The congregation stands and says

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, was incarnate from the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

Prayers of Intercession

The president introduces the prayers. The congregation sits.
Lord, in your mercy
hear our prayer.

At the end
Merciful Father;
accept these prayers
for the sake of your Son,
our Saviour Jesus Christ.
Amen.

The Liturgy of the Sacrament The Peace

The congregation stands. The president says

We are all one in Christ Jesus.
We belong to him through faith,
heirs of the promise of the Spirit of peace.
The peace of the Lord be always with you.
and also with you.

Offertory Collection

A collection is taken. Please remember to use a Gift Aid envelope if you are a UK taxpayer. You may also donate by phone or cards at the contactless points as you leave. Additionally, you may give to the Cathedral by scanning this QR code or via <https://www.exeter-cathedral.org.uk/support-us/giving-to-exeter-cathedral/>

Preparation of the Table

The altar is prepared and the congregation sings.

All creatures of our God and King, lift up your voice and with us sing
Alleluya, alleluya!

Thou burning sun with golden beam,
thou silver moon with softer gleam:
*O praise him, Alleluya.

Thou rushing wind that art so strong,
ye clouds that sail in heaven along,
O praise him, Alleluya!

Thou rising morn, in praise rejoice,
ye lights of evening, find a voice:
*O praise him...

Thou flowing water, pure and clear,
make music for thy Lord to hear,
Alleluya, Alleluya!

Thou fire so masterful and bright,
that givest man both warmth and light:
*O praise him...

Dear mother earth, who day by day
unfoldest blessings on our way,
O praise him, Alleluya!
The flowers and fruits that in thee grow,
let them his glory also show:
*O praise him...

Let all things their Creator bless,
and worship him in humbleness,
O praise him, Alleluya!
Praise, praise the Father, praise the Son,
and praise the Spirit, three in One:
*O praise him...

Words: St Francis of Assisi (1182-1226)

Tr William Draper (1855-1933)

Tune: Lasst uns erfreuen, Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872-1958)

Prayer over the gifts

The congregation remains standing. The president says

Blessed are you, Lord God of all creation:
through your goodness we have this bread to set before you, which earth has given and human hands have made.
It will become for us the bread of life.

Blessed be God for ever.

Blessed are you, Lord God of all creation:
through your goodness we have this wine to set before you, fruit of the vine and work of human hands.
It will become for us the cup of salvation.

Blessed be God for ever.

Eucharistic Prayer

The president says

The Lord be with you
And also with you.

Lift up your hearts
We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God
It is right to give thanks and praise.

Father, you made the world and love your creation.
You gave your Son Jesus Christ to be our Saviour.
His dying and rising have set us free from sin and death.
And now we give you thanks
That in the witness of your martyr Sidwell,
Who followed Christ even to death,
You reveal your power made perfect in our human weakness.
And so we gladly thank you,
with saints and angels praising you, and saying:

The choir sings:

Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of hosts,
heaven and earth are full of thy glory.
Glory be to thee, O Lord most high.
Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

The president continues:

We praise and bless you, loving Father,
through Jesus Christ, our Lord;
and as we obey his command, send your Holy Spirit,
that broken bread and wine outpoured may be for us
the body and blood of your dear Son.
On the night before he died he had supper with his friends and, taking bread, he praised you.

He broke the bread, gave it to them and said:
Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you;
do this in remembrance of me.
When supper was ended he took the cup of wine.
Again he praised you, gave it to them and said:
Drink this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.
So, Father, we remember all that Jesus did,
in him we plead with confidence his sacrifice made once for all upon the cross.
Bringing before you the bread of life and cup of salvation, we proclaim his death and resurrection until he comes in glory.

The deacon says

Great is the mystery of faith:

Christ has died:

Christ is risen:

Christ will come again.

Lord of all life, help us to work together for that day when your kingdom comes and justice and mercy will be seen in all the earth.

Look with favour on your people, gather us in your loving arms and bring us with the Blessed Virgin Mary, St Peter, St Boniface, St Sidwell, St Edward the Confessor and all the saints to feast at your

Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honour and glory are yours,
O loving Father, for ever and ever.

Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Let us pray with confidence in the words our Saviour has taught us.

Our Father,
who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Breaking of the Bread

The president breaks the consecrated bread
We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.
Though we are many, we are one body,
because we all share in one bread.

Giving of Communion

Jesus is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world.

Blessed are those who are called to his supper.

Lord, I am not worthy to receive you, but only say the word, and I shall be healed.

The congregation sits. If you wish to receive communion please follow the directions of the sidesmen. If you wish to receive a blessing please hold up this book to indicate that you wish to receive a blessing. Please do not dip the host in the wine. Gluten-Free hosts are available—simply say "Gluten-Free."

Agnus Dei

The choir sings

O Lamb of God,
that takest away the sins of the world,
have mercy upon us.

O Lamb of God,
that takest away the sins of the world,
have mercy upon us.

O Lamb of God,
that takest away the sins of the world,
grant us thy peace.

Anthem

The choir sings

Ave verum corpus natus
De Maria Virgine,
Vere passum, immolatus
In cruce pro homine:
Cuius latus perforatum
Unda fluxit et sanguine,
Esto nobis praegustatum
In mortis examine.
O dulcis, O pie, O Jesu Fili Mariae; Miserere mei. Amen.

*Hail the true body, born
of the Virgin Mary:
You who truly suffered and were sacrificed on the cross for the sake of man.
From whose pierced flank
flowed water and blood:
Be a foretaste for us
in the trial of death.
O sweet, O merciful,
O Jesus, Son of Mary;
Have mercy on me. Amen.*

Words: 14th Century

Music: William Byrd (1540-1623)

Prayer after Communion

*The president says
Let us pray.*

The congregation stands.

Post Communion Prayer

Holy Father,
who gathered us here around the table of your Son
to share this meal with the whole household of God:
in that new world where you reveal the fullness of your peace, gather people of every race and language to share in the eternal banquet of Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Almighty God, we thank you for feeding us with the body and blood of your Son Jesus Christ.
Through him we offer you our souls and bodies
to be a living sacrifice.
Send us out in the power of your Spirit to live and work to your praise and glory.
Amen.

The congregation sits. Notices are given.

Hymn

The congregation stands and sings

Light's abode, celestial Salem, vision dear whence peace doth spring,
brighter than the heart can fancy, mansion of the highest King;
O, how glorious are the praises which of thee the prophets sing!

There for ever and for ever alleluya is outpoured;
for unending, for unbroken
is the feast-day of the Lord;
all is pure and all is holy that within thy walls is stored.

There no cloud nor passing vapour dims the brightness of the air;
endless noon-day, glorious noon-day,
from the Sun of suns is there;
there no night brings rest from labour,
there unknown are toil and care.

Laud and honour to the Father,
laud and honour to the Son,
laud and honour to the Spirit,
ever Three and ever One,
one in love, and One in splendour,
while unending ages run. Amen.

Words: Latin, 15th Century

Tr J.M. Neale (1818-1866)

Tune: Henry Smart (1818-1879)
