Notices

As part of our commitment to openness within our Cathedral community, we want to share an update regarding our current financial position. Following recent internal reviews that highlighted unexpected operational and property costs alongside shortfalls in projected income, both our staff and volunteers have been made aware of a significant budget deficit for the year ahead. To help navigate these financial challenges, the Cathedral Chapter has invited staff members to consider either voluntary redundancy or a permanent reduction in their working hours. While this is a sensitive and uncertain time for everyone who cares for our Cathedral, we remain deeply grateful for our team's dedication. We kindly ask that you keep all of our staff and the Chapter in your prayers during this period, asking for grace, wisdom and strength as we discern the path forward. For any questions relating to this announcement, please email the Cathedral via volunteers@exeter-cathedral.org.uk

Congratulations to The Revd Professor Morwenna Ludlow, Canon Theologian, who has been elected a Fellow of the British Academy. The Fellowship is the highest honour that the Academy confers on UK residents in recognition of scholarly distinction in the humanities and social sciences. Professor Ludlow, of the University of Exeter's Department of Classics, Ancient History, Religion and Theology, studies the history of Christian thought, with a particular focus on the early church.

A Disability Awareness Exhibition will be in the Lady Chapel 12-19 August: "Called As We Are" spotlights the contribution of those who are Deaf, disabled and/or neurodivergent in images taken by portrait and documentary photographer Ruth Samuels. The exhibition was launched at York Minster in July and is on tour in four Cathedrals, including Exeter.

Organ Recital : Andrew Millington, former Organist and Master of Choristers, Thursday 13 August, 7pm. Tickets £4-£10 on the door or online at or scan the QR code:
