BCP Collect (The Twelfth Sunday after Trinity)

Almighty and everlasting God, you are always more ready to hear than we to pray and to give more than either we desire or deserve: pour down upon us the abundance of your mercy, forgiving us those things of which our conscience is afraid and giving us those good things which we are not worthy to ask but through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Safeguarding

The care and protection of children, young people and adults involved in Church activities is the responsibility of everyone who participates in the life of the Church. If you are concerned that someone you know is at risk of or is being abused or presents a risk to others, email safeguarding@exeter-cathedral.org.uk

or to speak to one of our local contacts below

Catherine Escott - Chief Operating Officer - 07914 901254

Mike Brewer - Cathedral Safeguarding Officer - 07482 312299

If there is immediate risk or danger please contact the Police on 999, or if necessary report the matter to the Local Authority Social Care Services without delay. Please see the poster in the Cathedral for contact numbers for any external agencies. The poster is located at the desk in the South Transept. Departed: David Maughfling, Dorrett Wood

Anniversary of death: Evelyn Hunt, Andrew Oaker

Notices

As part of our commitment to openness within our Cathedral community, we want to share an update regarding our current financial position. Following recent internal reviews that highlighted unexpected operational and property costs alongside shortfalls in projected income, both our staff and volunteers have been made aware of a significant budget deficit for the year ahead. To help navigate these financial challenges, the Cathedral Chapter has invited staff members to consider either voluntary redundancy or a permanent reduction in their working hours. While this is a sensitive and uncertain time for everyone who cares for our Cathedral, we remain deeply grateful for our team's dedication. We kindly ask that you keep all of our staff and the Chapter in your prayers during this period, asking for grace, wisdom and strength as we discern the path forward. For any questions relating to this announcement, please email the Cathedral via volunteers@exeter-cathedral.org.uk

Volunteer Vacancies: there are current vacancies for virgers,

Flower Arrangers, Cathedral Fabric Advisory Committee and Education Volunteers. Please see

Summer Holiday Activities

20 July – 4 September 2026 | during standard opening hours

This summer, spend a day taking part in the wide variety of themed art and craft activities we have planned for you and your family!

Why visit us this summer with the family?

- Make happy memories in Exeter's stunning historical setting
- Instil an appreciation of history and heritage in your children
- Escape into a lower temperature setting, away from the sun
- Enjoy locally-sourced refreshments in our peaceful Café

Congratulations to The Revd Professor Morwenna Ludlow, Canon Theologian, who has been elected a Fellow of the British Academy. The Fellowship is the highest honour that the Academy confers on UK residents in recognition of scholarly distinction in the humanities and social sciences. Professor Ludlow, of the University of Exeter's Department of Classics, Ancient History, Religion and Theology, studies the history of Christian thought, with a particular focus on the early church.

In Conversation with Rosie Jackson: ‘Love Leans Over the Table’

Saturday 13 September 2026 at 6pm in The Chapter House

Dr Rosie Jackson has a background in education and therapy, but her primary love, work-wise, for the last decade has been writing and teaching poetry.

Her poems are widely published in journals and anthologies and her most recent collection, Love Leans over the Table (2023), has been acclaimed for its exploration and celebration of mystical life. Rosie will share some of her work, respond to questions and discuss how spiritual experience and faith can find their voice in poetry.

Join us for a fascinating conversation followed by a short service of compline. This is a free event; no booking is required.

Leading Ladies: Stories of Ordinary & Extraordinary Women

Tuesday 15 September 2026, 2pm-4pm

Celebrate women through history and discover their stories at this special tour of Exeter Cathedral and its Library.

Journey through time from medieval saints and mystics to Enlightenment scientists and Victorian illuminators and calligraphers, and discover their lives, challenges and achievements.

Tours begin in the Cathedral and end in the Cathedral Library & Archives.

Places are limited, booking is essential. Tickets bookable at <https://www.ticketsource.com/exetercathedral/t-dkkrkox> or via the QR code.

Library & Archives In Focus – The West Front

Tuesday 22 September 2026, Drop in 1pm-3pm,

Library & Archives Reading Room

Come along to this pop-up exhibition to explore some of the stories behind these time-worn carvings of kings, saints, angels and more, as shown through historic books and documents from the Cathedral Library & Archives.

This is a free drop-in event; no booking is required.

The Merry Wives of Windsor

23, 24, 25 & 26 September 2026, 7:30pm – 10pm

The Cathedral Players are delighted to present Shakespeare's The Merry Wives of Windsor – four performances that promise to be a most enjoyable evening with outrageous French accents, plenty of laughs and a touch of the ridiculous!

Legend has it that this play was commissioned by Queen Elizabeth I because she enjoyed the character Falstaff but wanted to see him in a comedic 'love' situation. Here, Sir John Falstaff, still an excessive toper and rogue, attempts to seduce not one, but two wives of Windsor. The ensuing mayhem is further exacerbated by a subplot in which the daughter of one of the wives, Anne Page, is assailed by several unsuitable suitors. The climax takes place in the countryside outside Windsor Castle with Falstaff convinced he is being tormented by a troupe of fairies, at the end of which several people have learnt valuable lessons – not all of them pleasant.

About the Directors

James Stevenson and David Gunn-Johnson, who are co-directing this production, both have considerable theatrical experience. David has been involved in The Cathedral Players for decades, having also directed a number of plays for Exeter Little Theatre Company. James has been with The Cathedral Players since its rebirth in 2023, when he directed their production of Twelfth Night. Both James and David are delighted to be working together again – their enjoyment will be evident to attendees. Tickets bookable via <https://www.ticketsource.com/exetercathedral/e-bpymdo> or via the QR code.
