BCP Collect (The Thirteenth Sunday after Trinity)

Almighty and merciful God, of whose only gift it cometh that thy faithful people do unto thee true and laudable service: Grant, we beseech thee, that we may so faithfully serve thee in this life, that we fail not finally to attain thy heavenly promises; through the merits of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Safeguarding

The care and protection of children, young people and adults involved in Church activities is the responsibility of everyone who participates in the life of the Church. If you are concerned that someone you know is at risk of or is being abused or presents a risk to others, email safeguarding@exeter-cathedral.org.uk

or to speak to one of our local contacts below

Catherine Escott - Chief Operating Officer - 07914 901254

Notices

As part of our commitment to openness within our Cathedral community, we want to share an update regarding our current financial position. Following recent internal reviews that highlighted unexpected operational and property costs alongside shortfalls in projected income, both our staff and volunteers have been made aware of a significant budget deficit for the year ahead. To help navigate these financial challenges, the Cathedral Chapter has invited staff members to consider either voluntary redundancy or a permanent reduction in their working hours. While this is a sensitive and uncertain time for everyone who cares for our Cathedral, we remain deeply grateful for our team's dedication. We kindly ask that you keep all of our staff and the Chapter in your prayers during this period, asking for grace, wisdom and strength as we discern the path forward. For any questions relating to this announcement, please email the Cathedral via volunteers@exeter-cathedral.org.uk

Volunteer Vacancies: there are current vacancies for virgers,

Flower Arrangers, Cathedral Fabric Advisory Committee and Education Volunteers. Please see

Medieval Mysteries: The Story of Exeter Cathedral's Votives (Free Tour)

11-19 September 2026 | Tours at 10am-11:15am & 3pm-4:15pm

Ever wondered what a votive is? Or why Exeter Cathedral has the only complete medieval wax votive figure in Europe? These mysterious items were part of daily life at the Cathedral in the 1400s.

Come along on a free tour as part of Heritage Open Days 2026 to find out what votives are, why they were used, and see a real life votive inside our Treasures Exhibition. Our expert guides will take you on a journey through the Cathedral and the Treasures Exhibition, sharing the story of the building and the everyday histories it holds. In addition to the votives our Treasures Exhibition has on display some of the rare and ancient artefacts from our Library and Archives collection, including the Exeter Book and Exon Domesday. In Conversation with Rosie Jackson: ‘Love Leans Over the Table’

Sunday 13 September 2026 at 6pm in The Chapter House

Dr Rosie Jackson has a background in education and therapy, but her primary love, work-wise, for the last decade has been writing and teaching poetry.

Her poems are widely published in journals and anthologies and her most recent collection, Love Leans over the Table (2023), has been acclaimed for its exploration and celebration of mystical life. Rosie will share some of her work, respond to questions and discuss how spiritual experience and faith can find their voice in poetry.

Join us for a fascinating conversation followed by a short service of compline. This is a free event; no booking is required.

Library & Archives In Focus – The West Front

Tuesday 22 September 2026, Drop in 1pm-3pm,

Library & Archives Reading Room

Come along to this pop-up exhibition to explore some of the stories behind these time-worn carvings of kings, saints, angels and more, as shown through historic books and documents from the Cathedral Library & Archives.

This is a free drop-in event; no booking is required.

The Merry Wives of Windsor

23, 24, 25 & 26 September 2026, 7:30pm – 10pm

Sir John Falstaff, attempts to seduce not one, but two wives of Windsor. The ensuing mayhem is exacerbated by a subplot in which the daughter of one of the wives, Anne Page, is assailed by several unsuitable suitors. The climax takes place in the countryside outside Windsor Castle with Falstaff convinced he is being tormented by a troupe of fairies, at the end of which several people have learnt valuable lessons – not all of them pleasant.
